Council Matters

NOVEMBER 2017

Governor Hogan Signs Anti-BDS Executive Order

The leadership of the Baltimore Jewish Council and The Associated joined other Israel advocates on October 23 in Annapolis to witness Governor Larry Hogan sign Executive Order 01.01.2017.25. This ensures that companies that participate in the discriminatory boycott of Israel are prohibited from securing procurement contracts with the State of Maryland. We are grateful to Governor Hogan and his administration for taking this vital action and proud to know that state funding will not be used to support the discrimination and unfair business practices of the BDS movement.

Celebrating Jewish Veterans

The Baltimore Jewish Council is teaming up with the Simon E. Sobeloff Jewish Law Society to honor Veterans Day. This program will feature a panel of highly regarded military lawyers who will shed light on the contributions of the Jewish veteran community. Though the event is free and open to the public, we ask for a suggested at-the-door donation of $18 to support resources for veterans in our community. The program will begin at 6:00 p.m. in the Park Heights JCC on November 14.

CANCELLED: Interfaith Legislative Preview

Unfortunately the November 8th Interfaith Legislative Preview has been cancelled. We appreciate you helping us to spread the word and are sorry for any inconvenience this causes. We will continue our work advocating on these key issues and will fully refund all registration fees already paid.
