Berkshire JEWISH VOICE

A publication of the Jewish Federation of the Berkshires

2025 Advertising Media Kit

Who We Are

The Berkshire Jewish Voice is a free, non-profit newspaper published by the Jewish Federation of the Berkshires. It is the main information resource for the Berkshire Jewish Community with over 5000 readers*. 72% of copies are mailed directly to readers' homes with the remainder distributed at hi-traffic locations throughout the region.

Over 47% of readers are donors to the Jewish Federation's annual community campaign which raises funds to care for those in need and nurtures and sustains Jewish life in the Berkshires, in Israel and around the world.

Demographics*

The Berkshire Jewish community is an affluent, highly educated, culturally minded and philanthropic audience representing a mix of full-time residents and second homeowners in the Berkshires.

- Median age is 59
- 82.5% married
- 58% have a masters, doctoral or professional degree
- Median Household Income: $100,000
