

The Jewish Federation of Greater Dallas works with a number of tour organizers for trips to Israel and other destinations around the world. Below is information on the four companies with whom we work closely. If you are a member of a Federation Giving Society, assistance in planning travel is a part of your services package. Please email Sarah Golman at sgolman@jewishdallas.org for more information.

Giant Leaps

Giant Leaps Content Activities has been working in the field of Jewish Content Tourism in Israel for over seven years. Our team is strongly committed to the Jewish people and recognizes the importance of the visit to Israel to strengthening the Jewish peoplehood, Jewish identity and Jewish community. We pride ourselves on completing dozens of successful missions of all sizes, (from Mega Mission with over 700 participants, to family trips, company tours and professional conferences), and on creating unique content for each of our clients, providing them with creative, current and cutting edge activities, meaningful encounters and a memorable experience, as individuals and as a community.

Giant Leaps offers quality tourism programs for missions, groups, families or businesses, through innovative content, unique experiences and excellence in service and implementation. We make it a priority to get to know each client and to prepare a truly unique and individual program. We have experience organizing Mega-Missions including Dallas's recent community mission, The BIG One. Wow your friends, family and community with events that will be remembered for a lifetime!
