

Dear Gentle Readers,
The Tycher Library will soon launch our e-book collection. You will be able to use your computer, Kindle or other electronic device to download and read a book.

If you would like to check out an e-book, you will need a User Name and Password. At your earliest convenience, please email me your User Name and Password preference so I can set you up in the system.

For your security, we recommend:

- Your username should be simple enough to remember but hard to guess.
- Password, in no particular order: a minimum of eight letters (upper and lower case), a punctuation mark and a symbol.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions.

Warmest Regards,
Karen Schlosberg

The Tunnel* by A. B. Yehoshua

From the award-winning, internationally acclaimed Israeli author, A. B. Yehoshua, a suspenseful and poignant story of a family coping with the sudden mental decline of their beloved husband and father—an engineer who they discover is involved in an ominous secret military project.

Carl Shrag, education consultant at the iCenter, will lead a discussion of A.B. Yehoshua's book The Tunnel.

Carl is a journalist, and Middle East analyst who lived in Israel for nearly 15 years and was the Editor of The Jerusalem Post, Israel's leading English-language daily. Carl knows and has interviewed A.B.Yehoshua.

The Outskirts of Hope: A Memoir of the 1960s Deep South* by Jo Ivester

In The Outskirts of Hope, Ivester uses journals left by her mother, as well as writings of her own, to paint a vivid, moving, and inspiring portrait of her family's experiences living and working in an all-black town during the height of the civil rights movement.

"What makes this book particularly valuable is its vivid depiction of the abhorrent consequences of legalized segregation. What gives it heart is the window it opens to the personal journeys of mother and daughter. An important, riveting history lesson that, unfortunately, is still relevant today."

Save The Date! Walk Against Hate

ADL Texoma invites the community to get involved and walk with us to take a stand against hate in all its forms, celebrate our differences, and share the belief that injustice for one group is injustice for all.

As its slogan "Fighting Hate for Good" suggests, the Anti-Defamation League is a global anti-hate organization, which offers anti-bias and anti-bullying education programs.

The ADL began nationally in 1913, and started its Dallas branch in 1965.
