FRIENDS

We have come to the close of our official United Jewish Appeal fund-raising season (although it’s never too late to donate)! As a community, we owe a debt of gratitude to Larry Katz and Yannai Segal, our 2016 UJA Campaign Co-Chairs, to all of our canvassers, and to our amazing staff team for running a good campaign in a very tough year. This year, we did not reach our goal of $2.75M, but we did come close, and many members in our community made sacrifices to ensure that key programs and services can continue to be provided. We are so grateful to our volunteers for their time, passion, and talent, and extremely grateful to our donors for their generosity.

Last week’s parsha, Beshalach, tells the story of the parting of the Red Sea. What emerges is a picture of a people with passion, and talent, and extremely grateful to our donors for their generosity.

Sara’s Voice sotto voce

Nearly 200 people attended Sara’s Voice sotto voce, a captivating, moving and meaningful narrated concert. The production tells the story of violin virtuoso Sara Rashina, whose life was cut short in the Shoah. Thank you to creator and narrator Deborah Shelkan Remis, Diana Cohen on violin and Roman Rabinvitch on piano for sharing their talents and bringing to life this tragic story. Thank you as well to our partner in this event, Temple B’nai Tikvah, and our community sponsors: Rochelle Rabinvitch, Bettina and Leib Zeisler, Elaine and Stuart Myron, David Remis, Diana Cohen on violin and Roman Rabinovich on piano.
