A MESSAGE FROM BRUCE AND ADAM

Shalom friends,
We often find out “what we are made of” during difficult or challenging times. Such is the case with this year’s UJA Campaign. In what is shaping up to be a time of economic unsettlement for many Calgarians, our volunteer and professional leadership teams rolled up their sleeves and put their collective passion and talent to work for the good of Jewish Calgary. Through capable planning and tireless effort, the campaign team and all of our canvassers worked to ensure, with you – our donors, that the important services provided directly by Calgary Jewish Federation and its partner agencies can continue to be offered without interruption.

Kol Hakavod to Campaign Chairs Larry Katz, Debbie Ryder, and Yannai Segal for their leadership, to the volunteer canvassers and event organizers, as well as to Diana Kalef, Irena Karshenbaum, and Aviva Kolotinsky for their professional direction and support in surpassing $2.8 million. This total is shy of our overall goal but, nonetheless, we should be proud of our Community and its achievement, especially in today’s economic climate. We are very grateful to our 1639 donors – the Community thanks you for your commitment and generosity. Because of you, members of our Jewish Community will feel supported, will feel proud, and will be able to live Jewish lives. Because of you, our Israeli partners and peers will know we care, will know they are not alone. Because of you, our children will learn to carry on our traditions, our Holocaust Survivors will share their stories and inspire the next generation, and our young families will carve out time in their busy schedules to enjoy PJ Library® books together, celebrating their Jewish roots in ways which are comfortable for them.

Without a Community that cares, Jewish Calgary could not be all that it is, and all that it aspires to be. On behalf of the Board and Staff team of Calgary Jewish Federation, and on behalf of the Jewish Community of Calgary, we express our utmost gratitude and appreciation – Todah Rabah!

B'Shalom,

Bruce Libin
President
Calgary Jewish Federation

Adam Silver

In Recognition

Calgary Jewish Federation gratefully acknowledges a generous bequest from the estate of Stephen Blitz^{2nd}. Mr. Blitz was a loyal supporter of the United Jewish Appeal (UJA) campaign and of the Jewish community. In later years, he shared his experiences as a Holocaust survivor with young leaders at Dor L'Dor events. We are proud to honour Mr. Blitz's legacy by continuing his contribution to the programs and services which make Calgary a vibrant Jewish community.

PJ TU B'SHEVAT

Tu B'Shevat – the New Year for Trees - was celebrated with a lively seder jointly hosted by PJ Library® and Temple B'nai Tikvah on January 24. The 35 families enjoyed the traditional seven species of Israeli fruit, four glasses of grape juice and the story of Honi and the Carob tree, which brought home the message that what we plant today is appreciated by generations to come. Looking to the future, the children planted parsley seeds which should bear fruit in time for Pesach seders. Special thanks to Temple School Principal Jenny Laing and the talented Katie Baker for leading the seder and making Tu B'Shevat a truly special PJ occasion!

Domestic Violence in the Jewish Community: A Survey

The University of Calgary and Jewish Family Service Calgary have teamed together to create a survey in order to better understand domestic violence in the Jewish communities of the Prairie Provinces (Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba).

In order to obtain this important information and improve the services in our community, members of the Jewish community are asked to complete a 15-30 minute survey. If you would like to participate, please find the survey at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DomesticViolenceinJewishCommunity>.

JEWISH DISABILITY AWARENESS AND INCLUSION MONTH

Inspiring. Funny. Irreverent. Fascinating. These are all words to describe Alvin Law's opening of Jewish Disability Awareness and Inclusion Month on Sunday, February 7. A Thalidomide survivor, Alvin was born without arms and with the support of adoptive parents and others, learned to face life head on and overcome all obstacles.

A talented professional speaker, Alvin's mission is to spark a worldwide "Attitude Revolution." By telling his story and demonstrating his musical abilities, he sends the message that every person has challenges, and the overriding determinant of success is a positive attitude. If his impact on the 150 people in the audience is any indication, Alvin's revolution is sure to triumph!

Thank you to the Calgary Foundation for its support of this program.

Alvin Law's presentation was the launch of Jewish Disability Awareness and Inclusion Month, a month-long series of events coordinated by Calgary Jewish Federation with the collaboration of all the synagogues, JFSC and the JCC (see community events listed to the right). The goal is to raise awareness and champion the rights of all Jews to be included and to participate in all aspects of Jewish life.

Beth Price, Vice-President Calgary Jewish Federation; Karina Sculz, Inclusion and Shalom Calgary Coordinator; Alvin Law; and Sandra Morton Weizman, Chair, Task Force on Inclusion of Jewish People with Disabilities
