NEWS, VIEWS AND SCHMOOZE WITH THE CALGARY JEWISH COMMUNITY

A MESSAGE FROM JEFF

Shalom friends,
In these uncertain and troubled times, the work of Calgary Jewish Federation and our national partner, The Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs (CIJA) is more important than ever in making sure that the Jewish community has a strong and effective voice in the Canadian fabric and that issues of concern to our community are addressed on a local, regional, and national level. In addition to the regular monthly meetings of our Community Relations Committee, in the past few weeks, several events have occurred requiring our attention. Here are some of the activities we have undertaken lately:

1. Quebec Mosque Attack – Both Federation and CIJA were prompt in issuing press releases condemning the murderous attack at the Islamic Cultural Centre in Quebec City on January 29. Federation also sent letters of solidarity to many Muslim organizations in Calgary. I was invited to speak at the first vigil at Calgary City Hall and my remarks and the presence of members of the Jewish community were most appreciated by the 500+ people there. In addition, Federation was asked to assist in finding a rabbi to participate in an Interfaith Prayer Vigil at the Akram Jomaa Mosque the following day. Rabbi Joshua Corber of Beth Tzedec Congregation represented the community on that occasion.

2. Community Security – In light of world events, it is natural that Jewish communities feel a sense of discomfort or even fear about their safety and security. Whenever there is a terrorist attack or a bomb threat against Jewish institutions or an anti-Israel speaker, members of our community ask: What is Calgary Jewish Federation doing to protect our community? Federation is in constant contact with our liaison officers in the Calgary Police Service, the intelligence team and the special events team as well as our contacts in the RCMP. Our discussions involve specific incidents requiring investigation, an assessment of risk surrounding large events in our own community, and oversight of organizations and individuals who may pose a threat. This month, with 30 JCCs and schools in the US targeted by bogus bomb threats, Federation sent out an alert to all community agencies reminding them to review bomb threat procedures with all staff.

3. Consultation on Advocacy Priorities – Calgary was one of nine communities in Canada to engage in grassroots consultation on the advocacy priorities to be pursued by CIJA. Thank you to the 20 people who participated locally! To see the results of the consultations, and to vote on your priorities, go to cija.ca/grassroots.

4. Meetings with Political Leaders – Federation recently held two fruitful meetings with political leaders. In January, Federation CEO Adam Silver and I met with MP and Minister of Veteran Affairs Kent Hehr and discussed the importance of Canada's support for Israel, and other issues of concern. This month, Adam, Yannai Segal and Judy Shapiro met with Mayor Nenshi to give him an update on the Jewish community, specifically on security concerns.

5. Avi Shabbat – Our Hillel and JAC groups play an important role in reaching out to other faith and cultural groups. Among those activities is Avi Shabbat, an interfaith celebration of Shabbat which is now in its third year. Kol Hakavod to the students and young adults who recognize the importance of building bridges of understanding between all the communities that make up the Calgary mosaic.

As this edition of the paper gets into the homes, Judy Shapiro is in Ottawa for two meetings: a fly-in focusing on advocating on behalf of Jewish people with disabilities and the first meeting of a cross-Canada national security committee.

Coming up, we expect the new Israeli Consul-General, Galit Baram, to visit in April – watch Pomegranate for details. Meanwhile, we will continue to work on your behalf to make sure that the voice of Jewish Calgary is heard. If you have any questions or concerns about the community relations and security activities of Federation, please do not hesitate to contact me or Judy Shapiro at jshapiro@jewishcalgary.org or 403-444-3153.

B'Shalom,

Jeff Smith, Chair, Community Relations Committee of Federation, the Local Partner of The Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs

Over 70 students from Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg enjoyed Shabbat Shebang Unplugged, a unique Shabbaton held January 27-29 at the Lakeview Hecla Resort outside Winnipeg. The Shabbaton, jointly sponsored by Hillel and Gray Academy Alumni, included meaningful services, unique programming and in-depth discussions centering on issues of Jewish identity and Israel advocacy. Thank you to our sponsors and partners, who made this leadership development program a success.
