Spring into Calgary Jewish Programming

The ability to experience both remembrance and celebration has always been a hallmark of Jewish history. There is no question we have woken up early in the month of Iyar when we celebrate Yom Hashoah – Israel’s Declaration of REMEMBRANCE in 1948 – immediately preceded by Yom Haatzmaut, honoring our Theodore Herzl, the father of modern Zionism.

At the Yom HaKamikura program organized by the ICC on Sunday, May 4, each seat at the Beth Tzedec will be labeled with the name of a soldier killed in battle or a civilian murdered in a terrorist attack. Let’s make sure that all of these nearly 1,500 seats make sure that all of these nearly 1,500 seats locate the mass graves of Jewish victims of terrorism. Ya’had-In Unum, an organization that helps veterans of Israel.

Eyes from the Ashes of Auschwitz-Birkenau will be followed by a program at the Beth Tzedec that night. New opportunities and choices. And our world is opulent with growth, new opportunities and choices.

It’s springtime – the season of new beginnings. The Aviv Dancers, a wonderful Israeli dance organization, all working to think of new ways to strengthen your body, challenge your mind and reawaken your soul. The Aviv Dancers will tell the fascinating story of THE LAST ALBUM. Eyes from the Ashen of Auschwitz-Birkenau.

Chinook followed by a JNF future event for young leaders.
