INVISIBLE HANDS Wed., Oct. 16 at 6:30 pm (1 hour 20 minutes)

This is the first feature documentary to expose child labor and child trafficking within the supply chains of the world's biggest companies. It is a harrowing account of children as young as 6 years old making the products we use every day.

A PLACE AT THE TABLE Wed., Oct. 23 at 6:30 pm (1 hour 24 minutes)

50 Million Americans - 1 in 4 children - don't know where their next meal is coming from. A Place at the Table tells the powerful stories of three such Americans, who maintain their dignity even as they struggle just to eat. It is a riveting journey that will change forever how you think about the hungry.

HEROIN(e) Wed., Oct. 30 at 6:30 pm (39 minutes)

This Oscar-nominated film follows three women - a fire chief, a judge, and a street missionary - battling the opioid epidemic.

Each film will be shown at Paragon Pavilion Theater
833 Vanderbilt Beach Rd, Naples, FL 34108.

There will be a panel of experts and discussion after each film about how these issues affect Southwest Florida and how to help.

Tickets are $10 each and available only through the Holocaust Museum's website - HolocaustMuseumSWFL.org.

There will be open seating for each screening.
