Angie's Story - Angie Suss Paull survived the Holocaust in the Lodz Ghetto, Auschwitz and Bergen-Belsen concentration camps. She spoke throughout upstate NY, sharing her positive message of courage, dignity and compassion, until her death in 2007. Educator's Guide and CD-ROM available.

The Weinbachs' Escape - This memoir tells the remarkable story of how a German three-star general helped the Weinbach family leave Austria, fleeing from Vienna to China.

Kurt Weinbach recounts this journey, which finally brought him to Rochester. Kurt spoke in schools until his death in 2010.

Perilous Journeys - Ten Rochester survivors from Germany and Austria share their stories in this accessible book designed for the classroom. We have lost most of the featured survivors but their voices live on in the web book version at www.perilousjourneys.org.

Lost Childhood - Henry Silberstern survived Terezin, then Auschwitz-Birkenau, as one of Mengele's "Birkenau Boys." He spoke for many years throughout the Rochester area until his death in 2016.

Survival in the Shadows - Local survivors Ellen and Erich Arndt managed to remain together hiding underground in Hitler's Berlin. This story highlights their incredible courage and demonstrates the importance of the more than 50 "helpers" who did not stand idly by. An excellent tool for teaching resistance and personal responsibility.

A Tribute to Mom, We Survived Together - CHAI speaker Sam Rind's memoir, as told to Janet Goldman, tells the story of his survival as a young child with his mother. Sam still speaks in area schools.

OF GREATER ROCHESTER

CENTER FOR HOLOCAUST AWARENESS AND INFORMATION

The Center for Holocaust Awareness and Information (CHAI) of the Jewish Federation of Greater Rochester is dedicated to the memory of the six million Jews who were murdered during the Holocaust.

The Center is a testimony to the vanished European Jewish communities, the Jewish resistance fighters and the righteous among the nations who did not stand by in silence. CHAI is committed to the advancement of public awareness of the Holocaust and its lessons as well as to the broader issues of prejudice, racism, and human rights.

CHAI Resources

The Center is a major repository for resources on the Holocaust. Our collection includes 1,500 books, 400 videos and DVDs and six poster series. Our Holocaust Survivor testimonies have been digitized and can be viewed online at www.rochesterholocaustsurvivors.org. Teacher focused, the library also contains a wide range of pedagogical materials (curricula, study guides and course outlines) to teach about the Holocaust and related subjects of prejudice and discrimination. In addition, we have a number of artifacts and original photographs collected from area survivors. Most materials are available for loan.

CHAI works with more than 70 area schools and colleges to arrange for speakers through its “Survivors in the Classroom” project. This generation of students is likely to be the last to hear the testimony of living Holocaust survivors so we have created several “traveling trunk” exhibits to send to schools. CHAI’s first traveling trunk contains a complete Holocaust unit for middle schoolers with DVDs, books, maps, photographs and artifacts covering the rise of the Nazi party and the impact on the lives of German and Austrian Jews. CHAI’s Poland traveling trunk picks up where the last trunk left off with the invasion of Poland. Lessons are focused on moral choices that influenced the survival of local Holocaust survivors from Poland, where most of prewar Europe’s Jews lived.

Teacher Training and Interschool Programs

CHAI offers an annual workshop for educators. We are designated as an official Echoes & Reflections training center. This curriculum, created jointly by the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), the USC Shoah Foundation and Yad Vashem, has impacted over 5 million students across the U.S. CHAI collaborates on programming with Monroe Community College’s Holocaust, Genocide and Human Rights Project and other local Holocaust education programs in area colleges.

CHAI offers an annual interschool program, inviting area schools to participate together in a Holocaust learning experience. We act as a clearinghouse for Holocaust education opportunities in the community.
