INTERNATIONAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

Please join us on Tuesday, January 23rd, 7:00 - 8:00 P.M. at Nazareth University for a commemoration of International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Dr. Bernice Lerner will describe how the British Second Army dealt with the unprecedented horrors confronting them, and how a small group of rescuers went about stemming typhus, burying thousands of dead, and treating 25,000 of 60,000 "displaced persons" in dire need of hospitalization.

Lunch & Learn with Uri Kaufman

Wednesday, February 7th at 12:00 – 1:00 P.M.
Via Zoom

This series is funded by generous sponsors of Israel @ 75.
Advanced registration is required.

ISRAEL AT 75

For over twenty years, Uri Kaufman visited the battlefields, interviewed veterans, and reviewed thousands of pages of declassified records. His book, Eighteen Days in October, is the first history of the Yom Kippur War to be released in almost twenty years, and the first with access to previously classified information. Join us on Wednesday, February 7th, 2024 from noon to 1:00 P.M. via Zoom as he provides unique insight and historical perspective to the ongoing crisis in Israel.
