Rabbi Amy Scheinerman is the hospice Rabbi in Howard County, Maryland. She writes, maintaining several popular blogs, and teaches in a variety of venues. She is a member of the Responsa Committee of the CCAR, and serves as editor of the Torah Commentary column of the CCAR newsletter. She is a past president of the Baltimore Board of Rabbis and of the Greater Carolinas Association of Rabbis, and has served on the national board of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. In her 27 years as a pulpit rabbi, she served Conservative, Reform, and unaffiliated congregations. Rabbi Scheinerman received her bachelor's degree from Brown University; has studied at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and Princeton Theological Seminary; and was ordained in 1984 at HUC-JIR in New York, where she also received a Doctor of Divinity in 2009. Rabbi Scheinerman is married to Dr. Edward Scheinerman, Vice Dean for Education at the Johns Hopkins University and professor of applied mathematics and statistics. They have four children and two grandchildren.
