

The Rosalyn Saltz and Norman Seymour Pliner Scholarship Fund

Guidelines and Eligibility

The Rosalyn Saltz and Norman Seymour Pliner Scholarship Fund was established by Norman Seymour Pliner, z"l in memory of his wife to honor her lifelong commitment to higher education. Unable to attend college, Rosalyn Saltz, z"l was an avid learner and regretted her lack of a university education. Her daughters, Dr. Patricia Louise Pliner, Dr. Judith Ellen Pliner, and Janice Leslie Pliner continue this fund to help others achieve what their mother only dreamed of doing.

The Rosalyn Saltz and Norman Seymour Pliner Scholarship Fund provides financial assistance to applicants residing in North or South Carolina attending accredited post-secondary schools as full-time students. The selected recipient must demonstrate a commitment to advancing women in leadership roles and show commitment and involvement in their chosen field. Involvement in the Jewish community must be demonstrated.

For the academic year, one grant of $4000 will be awarded annually to each of two recipients.

SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Student and family must be U.S. citizens or legal residents.
2. Student and family must demonstrate financial need and be applying for financial aid to their school.
3. Student and/or family must have a permanent residence in North or South Carolina established for at least one year. Preference will be given to North Carolina residents.
4. Student must demonstrate commitment to the Jewish community through engagement in substantive volunteer activities or employment.
5. Student must be well-rounded as demonstrated by participation in extracurricular activities.
6. Student must attend a recognized, accredited post-secondary institution and be enrolled in a full-time program leading to a degree.
7. A strong academic record is important. Student must be in good academic standing and have a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average.
