

Artist Residency Program For Senior Adults Returns To The JCC

The last three years, the JCC Senior Adult Club participated in an “Artist Residency Program.” The first year the program was facilitated by Jump Street, Arts in Education. Jump Street worked in partnership with the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts to place professional artists in a setting for 10 classes.

The participants enjoyed this program so much, that we decided to offer classes for 2018 and 2019, increasing to a 15-session program, thanks to funding from Arts For All Partnership, a partnership between the Cultural Enrichment Fund and the Greater Harrisburg Foundation, a regional foundation of the Foundation for Enhancing Communities. The Lipsett Philanthropic Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation covered costs for our supplies for 2019.

In 2020, we are increasing to a 20-session program. It is an incredible opportunity for our seniors to work with Cheryl Kugler, a professional artist. We are grateful for funding from the Department of Aging and the PA Council on the Arts which has enabled us to cover most of our cost. We are suggesting a donation of $25 for JCC Senior Adult Club members and a fee of $50 for Non-JCC Senior Adult club members.

Each class, Cheryl Kugler will introduce a different facet of art. Topics and details will be announced at a later date. We can register up to 30 people for this program, first come, first serve. The group will meet on Wednesdays. Because of the length of the program, and pre-scheduled activities, the classes will be spread out from March through September.
