Community Review Advertorials

Advertorials are advertisements in the form of an editorial article. A story about your business, product and services, told in an engaging style. It should read as an article about an interesting topic, and what is more interesting than your business? Think of your story as a way to converse with our readers, your potential customers.

Circus of the Kids Specialty Camp Comes to Jewish Community Center

Sponsored Content

Has your child ever wanted to run away and join the circus? If so, the chance of a lifetime is right around the corner.

That's because the Tallahassee, Florida based CIRCUS OF THE KIDS is coming to the JCC for a specialty camp the week of July 2.

The innovative educational program will be from Monday, July 2 through Friday, July 6 (no camp July 4), featuring instruction in such circus arts standbys as fire-eating, juggling, pyramid building, and mini-trampoline acrobatics. The camp is open to all area youngsters between the ages of 6 and 14 years. To register or obtain further information, contact Andrea Weikert at a.weikert@jewishfedhbg.org.

The only program of its kind in the country, CIRCUS OF THE KIDS specializes in taking ordinary youngsters and turning them into accomplished circus performers. The week long specialty camp teaches complicated performance routines. Owner/Director Bruce Pfeffer founded CIRCUS in 1982 after studying at Florida State University's renowned Flying High Circus. Since then, he has taken his unique program to numerous schools, family resorts, and summer camps, where it has touched the lives of more than 100,000 youngsters.

More information on CIRCUS OF THE KIDS may be found at the organization's website, www.circusofthekids.com.
