Dear Friends:

It is my honor to welcome you all to Jewish Nevada's 60th Anniversary Gala here at the Palms.

For sixty years, Jewish Nevada has served as the central philanthropic and community organization for Nevada's Jewish population, supporting programs across the state. From Holocaust education and antisemitism awareness to community building and youth engagement, Jewish Nevada has dedicated its passion, time and resources to our Jewish community.

I'd like to take a moment to recognize today's honorees: The Stenberg Family, The Marshall Family, Mayor Shelley Berkley and Dr. Larry Lehrner, Karin Sporn, Samantha and Scott Johnson, Sonia and John Breslow, Lisa and Brad Mindlin, and Fran Fine. Congratulations to each of you on being honored by Jewish Nevada.

Thank you all for being here today and for your service to the State of Nevada. I look forward to celebrating many more years of your meaningful work and dedication. Wishing you all the best for a successful event.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to welcome you to the 60th anniversary celebration of Jewish Nevada. Congratulations to the entire team on organizing tonight's celebration in honor of this important milestone for the oldest Jewish organization in the state. I am thrilled to celebrate 60 years of their hard work and dedication not just as your Senator but also as a member of the Jewish community.

For 60 years Jewish Nevada has ensured a strong community in the Silver State. Whether it's supporting our youth through overnight camp scholarships to hosting monthly events at the JCC, Jewish Nevada is there to make it happen. When members of the community find themselves in need of help Jewish Nevada steps in and provides resources like Community Grants and the Hebrew Free Loan. All of this support reinforces Jewish Nevada's mission to engage our community to invest, enrich, and ensure the vibrancy and continuity of Jewish life in Nevada, Israel, and around the world.

As we celebrate 60 years of success and growth, know you have my continued support, it is impressive to see just how far Jewish Nevada has come and the forward direction it's going in.

I wish you all the best and here's to another 60 years of success!

Sincerely,

Office of the Governor

February 22, 2026

Dear Friends of Jewish Nevada:

As Governor of the great State of Nevada, it is my pleasure to extend my heartfelt congratulations to Jewish Nevada on the occasion of your 60th Anniversary. For six decades, Jewish Nevada has made an extraordinary impact on our state, serving as the central philanthropic and community organization for Nevada's Jewish population.

Jewish Nevada supports a wide range of programs and agencies dedicated to community building, support services, safety and security, and youth engagement. In partnership with local, state, and federal law enforcement, Jewish Nevada has been a leader in advancing community safety and security initiatives – particularly in response to the rising threat of antisemitism. Through continued investment in Holocaust education, antisemitism awareness, and leadership development, Jewish Nevada ensures that future generations understand our history and are prepared to confront hate in all its forms.

This evening, Jewish Nevada proudly recognizes this year's distinguished honorees: The Steinberg Family, The Marshall Family, Mayor Shelley Berkley and Dr. Larry Lehrner, Karin Sporn, Samantha and Scott Johnson, Sonia and John Breslow, Lisa and Brad Mindlin, and Fran Fine. Their leadership, generosity, and unwavering commitment embody the spirit of service that has defined Jewish Nevada for 60 years—and will continue to inspire its future.

Thank you all for joining in honoring this milestone and for your continued support in building a thriving, resilient, and vibrant Jewish community for generations to come.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

As the representative for Nevada's First Congressional District, it is a pleasure to join you in celebrating the 60th Anniversary Gala hosted by Jewish Nevada. I send you my best wishes for a successful event and congratulations to tonight's honorees: the Steinberg Family, the Marshall Family, Mayor Shelley Berkley and Dr. Larry Lehrner, Karin Sporn, Samantha and Scott Johnson, Sonia and John Breslow, Lisa and Brad Mindlin, and The Honorable Fran Fine.

Founded in 1966, Jewish Nevada serves as the primary organization for Nevada's more than 70,000 Jewish residents as a cornerstone of support, advocacy, and community for families across our state. Through its commitment to strengthening Jewish life locally and responding to global humanitarian needs, Jewish Nevada has helped ensure that Jewish values of resilience, service, and responsibility continue to thrive for future generations.

For more than sixty years, Jewish Nevada has also been a strong and principled advocate, standing up against antisemitism, promoting community safety, and elevating the voices of Nevada's Jewish residents in civic and public life. That legacy of leadership and vigilance remains even more important today. In Congress, I share this commitment and have worked to combat hate and intolerance, support Israel's security, and champion non-profit security grant funding.

Thank you to Jewish Nevada for your decades of service, leadership, and dedication to community. I look forward to continuing to work together on issues that matter to Jewish families in Nevada and to celebrating many more milestones in the years ahead.

Dear Friends of Jewish Nevada,

Congratulations to Jewish Nevada on the momentous occasion of your 60th Anniversary. This milestone is a powerful testament to six decades of leadership, service, and unwavering commitment to strengthening both the Jewish community and the broader fabric of our great state.

As Nevada's central philanthropic organization serving the Jewish community, Jewish Nevada has played an indispensable role in supporting vital programs and services statewide. This success is made possible by the vision and generosity of your dedicated leaders and honorees. Today, we celebrate the remarkable contributions of The Steinberg Family, The Marshall Family, Mayor Shelley Berkley and Dr. Larry Lehrner, Karin Sporn, Samantha and Scott Johnson, Sonia and John Breslow, Lisa and Brad Mindlin, and Fran Fine.

From advancing education and leadership development, to enhancing community security, to providing humanitarian aid in Israel and around the world, your work reflects the highest values of compassion, responsibility, and collective care.

This anniversary is not only a celebration of past achievements, but also a reaffirmation of Jewish Nevada's ongoing commitment to building a safe, vibrant, and inclusive community for all Nevadans. Your dedication to ensuring that every individual can live with dignity, opportunity, and hope strengthens our state and sets an example for communities everywhere.

I am grateful for the strong partnership between my office and Jewish Nevada, and for your continued collaboration in advancing the wellbeing of our state. Your impact is felt far beyond any single program or initiative — it is seen in the lives you uplift and the communities you help to thrive.

Dear Jewish Nevada,

Congratulations on this momentous occasion, six decades of distinguished service to Jewish communities across Nevada.

It has been an honor to work with your organization during my time in Congress. While the past few years have been marked by tragedy and targeted acts of hate against your community, you have responded with grace, prioritizing solutions such as partnering with law enforcement, at both the local and federal levels, to advance community safety and security initiatives.

I especially appreciate your support and active engagement with our youth, providing them with a place of safety, learning, and opportunity. Your philanthropic contributions over the years have left a lasting impact on Nevada and the individuals who call it home, and I am excited to see all that your organization will continue to accomplish in the years ahead.

On behalf of Nevada's Second Congressional District, thank you for 60 years of exemplary leadership and service. I look forward to our continued collaboration on initiatives that uplift the Jewish community across the state.

Dear Friends,

On behalf of our community, congratulations to Jewish Nevada on its 60th Anniversary Gala, a milestone honoring six decades of leadership, philanthropy, and service to the Jewish community across Nevada. Jewish Nevada serves as the central philanthropic and community organization for the state, supporting programs in Southern and Northern Nevada that strengthen families, youth engagement, social services, and cultural connection.

For six decades, Jewish Nevada has invested in leadership, philanthropy, and community to ensure future generations understand history and create a vibrant Jewish community in Nevada. These values are exemplified by tonight's honorees: The Steinberg Family, The Marshall Family, Mayor Shelley Berkley and Dr. Larry Lehrner, Karin Sporn, Samantha and Scott Johnson, Sonia and John Breslow, Lisa and Brad Mindlin, and Fran Fine.

We value your partnership with elected leaders and appreciate collaboration to advance wellbeing, safety, and inclusion for all Nevadans. The anniversary celebrates legacy and renews commitment to a strong, secure, and vibrant Jewish community for generations to come. May the next decades bring unity and continued success and hope across Nevada.

Dear Members of the Jewish Nevada Community,

It is with great excitement and deep appreciation that I extend my warmest congratulations to Jewish Nevada on the occasion of your 60th anniversary, on behalf of the Ramat HaNegev community.

Our communities share a relationship built on meaningful personal connections and a vibrant exchange of delegations in both directions, connections that deepen year by year and strengthen our sense of mutual care and responsibility. These bonds have accompanied us in moments of celebration and growth, as well as in times of challenge, including the difficult period we have all experienced over the past two years.

As you mark six decades of impactful and dedicated activity, uniting Jewish communities across Nevada, we celebrate your commitment to Jewish values, Jewish learning, Jewish culture, and shared action. Your work continues to inspire connection, solidarity, and a strong sense of collective purpose.

We are deeply grateful to Stefanie and to the entire Federation team for their leadership, partnership, and ongoing dedication to nurturing and advancing the special connection between our communities.

With heartfelt congratulations and wishes for many more years of meaningful work and shared journeys ahead.

Over the past decade, Jewish Nevada has undergone a remarkable transformation. What was once a strong local federation has become a world-class institution with an expanding footprint across the state—strategic in its vision, sophisticated in its execution, and impactful in its reach.

This progress reflects a shift toward collaborative leadership, professional excellence, and thoughtful governance—an organization led by talented professionals working in partnership with committed lay leaders, all aligned around a shared mission and long-term vision for Jewish life in Nevada.

Jewish Nevada today is stronger, more visible, and more effective because of this evolution. Its ability to address complex community needs, invest in the future, and represent Nevada on a national stage speaks to what is possible when leadership, talent, and purpose come together.

We are proud to support Jewish Nevada as it celebrates 60 years of impact—and looks ahead to an even more dynamic future.
