

The Sperling Kronberg Mack Holocaust Resource Center will be offering 8 online courses this spring. All are open to anyone interested. Coursework is posted online and students in the course may complete the assignments at their own pace within the dates listed below. Those who are not Clark County teachers will receive a Certificate of Completion. Teachers not in Clark County School District can use the classes for State credit. CCSD teachers can get professional development units. CCSD teachers can enroll through ELMS.

Non-CCSD teachers should contact Susan Dubin at suzi48dubin@gmail.com ,who will facilitate your enrollment. The following courses will be taught online spring, 2021:

PDE 3691 To Save One Life: Rescuers Who Saved Lives during the Holocaust	1/25/2021-2/16/2021
PDE 3523 Using Literature to Teach About the Holocaust	1/25/2021-2/16/2021
PDE 3498 Not Only the Jews: Other Victims	2/16/2021-3/12/2021
PDE 3773 Propaganda in Nazi Germany	2/16/2021-3/12/2021
PDE 3702 Using Music and Art to Teach About the Holocaust	3/15/2021-4/16/2021
PDE 3519 Literature Study: Using Allegories and Picture Books	3/15/2021-4/16/2021
PDE 3758 Using Anne Frank in Holocaust Education, taught by Heidi Straus	3/19/2021-4/23/2021
*PDE 3617 Practical Approach to Teaching About the Holocaust	4/19/2021-5/7/2021

* PDE 3617 is a course for those wishing to qualify as Holocaust educators. It is open to those who have previously completed 5 Holocaust courses.