Camp Shalom Group Notes

-If you have extra (empty) toilet paper or paper towel rolls, we have several groups that would like to use them in activities! Thanks!

As we say in our Camp Shalom song, Shalom means peace, hello and goodbye and this week my message to you encompasses all three of those meanings. We say hello to a new week, goodbye to our campers on Friday and we hope that everyone has a peaceful year.

This session has been a short one but we have made some incredible memories. Campers will have many special activities in this final week including picture day and the late-night program on Wednesday, please send campers in shirts. Carnival and Yom Yisrael (Israel Day) on Thursday, please send campers in blue and white clothing on Thursday and our last Shabbat will be on Friday.

Please take some time to look at the lost-n-found when you are out here on Wednesday, we will keep the lost-n-found out here until September 1 and at that time it will be donated.

If you have any questions about camp, thoughts, feedback etc. you can email me at shalomdirector@jewishmadison.org

Thanks for sharing your campers with us this session!
B'shalom,
Ellen

Shh! Don't tell your camper, but we are going to have a blow-up slide at Camp for the Carnival. If you would like to OPT-OUT so your camper doesn't use the inflatable equipment, please email Ellen at shalomdirector@jewishmadison.org
