JCC PRESENTS SPECIAL SCREENING OF DOCUMENTARY MORTIFIED NATION AND Q&A WITH DIRECTOR MIKE MAYER ON THURS. 6/25
See the Film Called “Comedy Gold...Funny, Touching & Intensely Relatable”

WOODBIDGE, Connecticut; June 10, 2015 – The third and final event in the JCC of Greater New Haven’s annual spring Beckerman Lecture Series sponsored by TD Bank is a special presentation of popular documentary Mortified Nation on Thursday, June 25 at 7:30 pm, followed by a Q&A with the film’s director Mike Mayer. The program is open to the community, information-seekers and life-long learners of all ages.

Mortified Nation is a documentary about adults who share their most embarrassing, private childhood writings... in front of total strangers. The film blends performance footage of these public confessions with an examination of the rise of Mortified stage shows and chronicles how the simple act of exposing one’s private past can inspire an entire nation to “share the shame.” Transporting viewers back to a time of awkward firsts – first love, first rejection, first total freak out – the film captures the adolescent experience in a way few of us truly remember and most of us tried to forget.

Tickets are $12 for JCC members and $15 for non-members. Tickets are available at jccnh.org.
