Lesley Stahl in Conversation with Tom Brokaw

Before becoming "60 Minutes" hard hitting journalist Lesley Stahl was the first woman to serve as CBS News' White House correspondent. How did she break into a boy's-club industry? How has she balanced a brilliant career with a private life? Stahl is a grandmother now, and says the experience has transformed her. In her deeply personal new book, she explores how becoming a grandmother opens up even the most successful woman's life. She shares her own personal story and others from women of all walks of life.
