

Jewish Community Relations Council

Interfaith Prayer Event

In June, JCRC sponsored an interfaith prayer event in support of immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers at Olander Park with Sylvania United Church of Christ (UCC). Deacon Jennifer Vasquez of Sylvania UCC and JCRC Director Daniel Pearlman offered remarks and prayers, and Larry Robbins sang and played the guitar. Patty Hernandez, an immigration attorney, provided information about the immigration system, and Afghan refugees were in attendance along with Muslim community leaders from the Masjid Saad Foundation. Signs saying "Welcome" in 20 different languages were printed and taped across the room.

