WOMEN LEADING A DIALOGUE

Women Leading a Dialogue programs are funded through the generosity of the Susan & Steven Kaufman and Levine Family Philanthropic Funds of the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation.

On November 6-9, 17 women from Israel's Western Galilee region came to Toledo as part of a program called Women Leading a Dialogue. This special, multi-cultural, women's empowerment Partnership2Gether program brings Jewish and Arab women together for a dialogue. The women of the group get to know each other, go out on field trips, and celebrate holidays together. While strengthening their bonds, they also enhance their leadership skills.

While in town, the women met with over 100 Jewish and non-Jewish community members at three events. They also went on a tour and private glassblowing demonstration at the Toledo Museum of Art, made glass flowers at Gathered Glassblowing Studio, volunteered at the Islamic Food Bank, toured the Islamic Center of Greater Toledo and Congregation B'nai Israel, and more.

A special thank you to Laurie Gross, Anita Levin, Rhoda Miller, Fagie Benstein, Ann and Howard Rosenberg, Larry and Diane Friedman, and Barbara and Jim Goodman for providing home hospitality.
