Please note that checks need to be post-marked by December 31, 2020 for a 2020 tax deduction.

Gift Policy Statement Regarding Donations of Stock Stock Payments

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo is happy to accept donations of stock as payment for pledges made to the Annual Campaign. Stock gifts need to be received by 12 p.m. (noon) on December 29, 2020 in order to sell before the market closes. Please note the brokerage firm may charge a transaction fee up to an amount of $100.00.

It should be noted that our procedure is as follows for accepting stock: Whenever a gift of stock is made, the donor receives a confirmation in writing that the gift was made on that date. Normally upon consultation with financial professionals, this is the date used when valuing the gift for IRS tax purposes.

After being notified that a gift of stock has been made, either from the donor or a stockbroker, the stock will then transfer into the Federation's account and Federation will sell the stock. The net proceeds of the sale of stock will be applied against any outstanding pledges for the individual. The donor will be notified, in writing, what the net proceeds were.

To expedite this process, it is extremely helpful if the donor, his/her stockbroker or financial advisor notifies Federation's Department of Finance verbally or through email when a gift of stock is made. By following this procedure, the timing between the gift being made and the sale of the stock is greatly reduced.

Please contact Tina Stieben, CFO, at tina@JewishToledo.org or 419-724-0371, or 419-346-5397 (cell) for further assistance.

IRA Charitable Rollover Checks

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo is also happy to be able to accept IRA Charitable Rollover contributions to the Annual Campaign. Please contact Tina Stieben at 419-724-0371 or Arleen Levine 419-724-0355 if you are making provisions with your financial advisor to donate with an IRA Charitable Rollover check; this way we can ensure that the check is processed timely and that you receive the appropriate tax letter. For further information on the eligibility to contribute using your IRA Charitable Rollover, please consult your financial advisor.

Personal Credit Card & Check Payment Deadlines

Credit card payment information must be received at Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo by 2:00 pm Wednesday, December 30, 2020 for 2020 tax purposes. As stated above, payments by check need only be postmarked December 31, 2020 for 2020 tax purposes, or you can make payments online at www.JewishToledo.org by midnight on December 31, 2020. Please note that our offices will close at 1 p.m., Thursday, December 24, 2020, thru Friday, December 25, 2020 in observance of Christmas holiday. Please call the accounting department before 2 p.m. at 419-724-0366 to process a credit card payment over the phone.

Toledo Jewish Community Foundation

Thanks to an exciting vew change, Now is the perfect time to consider a Donor Advised Fund

By Jessica Endy

The Toledo Jewish Community Foundation Board has approved lowering the minimum gift to establish a Donor Advised Fund to $2,000, a significant reduction from the previous minimum of $5,000.

According to Foundation Chairman Daniel N. Steinberg, this modification reflects the Board's commitment to creating new opportunities for more Toledo community members to participate in legacy giving. "Our Board reduced the minimum to make our Donor Advised Fund program more inclusive and accessible to additional community members who might be charitably inclined, especially during these economic times."

Now, through a gift of $2,000 to the Foundation, donors can set up a Donor Advised Fund that enables them to regularly recommend grants to their favorite qualifying charitable organizations. Donors can establish the fund through a gift of cash, check or any kind of property, including appreciated securities, closely held stock, insurance and real estate. "We are happy to meet with donors to help identify their charitable interests, and to research qualifying local, national and international organizations that match donors' philanthropic goals," said Arleen R. Levine, J.D., Foundation Director.

The fund's assets are managed by the Foundation, which oversees record keeping and serves as a centralized resource enabling donors to make donations to and grants from the fund. Additional gifts always can be made to the Donor Advised Fund. With one form donors can recommend grants from the fund at any time, making this philanthropic vehicle especially simple to use and efficient for fund holders.

What's more, donors generally receive an income tax deduction for the cash or the full fair market value of the assets contributed to the Donor Advised Fund; if the property contributed to the fund is appreciated securities, real estate or some other capital asset, donors may be able to avoid paying a capital gains tax on the appreciation. As always, donors should consult their professional advisors for legal or accounting advice.

The Foundation manages the Jewish Federation and Foundation of Greater Toledo's comprehensive planned giving program, partnering with donors to provide a safety net and enhance Jewish life for current and future generations. For over 40 years, the Foundation has helped Toledo's families realize their fiscal and philanthropic goals through high-impact planned giving vehicles such as Donor Advised Funds.

For additional information on establishing a Donor Advised Fund, contact Arleen R. Levine at 419-724-0355 or Arleen@jewishtoledo.org.

Foundation funding fortifies vital program for local families

By Jessica Endy

For families with members who have special needs, even families with two incomes and excellent medical insurance, the out-of-pocket expenses necessary to ensure individuals with special needs reach their full potential can be very steep. For families with one income or less-comprehensive insurance coverage, the costs can be unmanageable.

Ahava, a program of the Jewish Federation and Foundation of Greater Toledo that is managed by Jewish Family and Social Service, has provided a lifeline since 2016 to Jewish families in Greater Toledo who are raising children with special needs and simply want to be able to access the best care possible for their children.

Ahava offers families an annual scholarship of up to $1,500 for each child, no matter their age, to put toward the cost of therapies such as speech therapy and music therapy, equipment, medical supplies, continuing education for parents on raising children with special needs, and other resources that help positively impact individuals and their families. Families must apply for the scholarship; the application process is completely confidential. Applications are reviewed by a committee of professionals in related fields before funds are awarded.

"The Ahava program is a tangible commitment by the Jewish community that shows we are a community that cares about those with special needs and their families," said Stephen Rothschild, Executive Director, Jewish Federation and Foundation of Greater Toledo. "Gemilut chasidim, acts of loving kindness, is one of the traditional values of Judaism. By helping those with special needs, we are able to give meaning to this important value."

The Toledo Jewish Community Foundation's Grants Committee recently approved a commitment of up to $20,000 for Ahava, to ensure the program could continue supporting Greater Toledo families.

"It is our responsibility as the Foundation to provide a safety net for the entire community, and to help meet all individuals' needs to the best of our ability," said Daniel N. Steinberg, Chairman of the Foundation. "I am confident that the Foundation's recent commitment to the Ahava program will have a truly meaningful impact on the Jewish families in Greater Toledo who rely on this terrific resource."

"I was thrilled when I learned the Foundation would be providing this funding to Ahava," said Shari Bernstein, MSW, Executive Director of Jewish Family and Social Service. "I know there is such a great need for this resource. Many critical services aren't covered by insurance, and costs can quickly skyrocket. Some of the services our families benefit from just wouldn't be possible without their Ahava scholarship."

"The Foundation is an essential source of funding for many things in Jewish Toledo, particularly for special programs like Ahava," said Rothschild. "We are grateful for the Foundation's commitment to services that embrace Jewish values and improve the quality of life here for everyone."

"The Toledo community is blessed with resources and many, many people who understand and care about the quality of Jewish life," continued Rothschild. "By offering the support provided by the Ahava program, we enhance the quality of Jewish life here. It sends a powerful message that we care about all people and their ability to live their lives to the fullest."

"I'm so thankful that we can care for Toledo Jewish community members through Ahava," said Bernstein. "Every single family we serve is overwhelmingly grateful for our support."

For more information on the Ahava program, contact Shari Bernstein at sharib@jewishtoledo.org or visit JewishToledo.org/Ahava.

Jewish Community Relations Council

Stronger Together

By Daniel Pearlman

I am so lucky to call Toledo my new home.

Since moving here just a few weeks ago, I have felt the warmth of the community in every conversation I’ve had as I begin my role as the Federation’s Director of the Jewish Community Relations Council. I bring to this role a background in relationship building, Israel advocacy, and nonprofit management.

At the end of my first week, I attended a virtual training by the Western States Center based on their newly revised toolkit for educators and community leaders called “Confronting White Nationalism.” The organization’s director, Eric K. Ward, is a strong ally of the Jewish community, works closely with the Anti-Defamation League and others, and speaks eloquently about white nationalism with personal experience both from infiltrating such groups as a researcher and, as a Black man, from being targeted by the hate that these groups espouse. Eric’s takeaway is this: “Antisemitism isn’t at the core of white nationalism; it is the core of white nationalism.”

Moving to Toledo last month from Pittsburgh, I understand this closely. Just over two years ago, a far-right gunman walked into the Tree of Life synagogue in the Squirrel Hill neighborhood and massacred eleven Jews in prayer in what amounted to the deadliest antisemitic attack in American history. Exactly six months later, another gunman walked into the Chabad house in Poway, California, resulting in another senseless murder. These instances, though extreme, serve as a stark reminder of the need for community relations. Rising hate and extremism make building strong relationships and coalitions with diverse groups more important than ever. But there is more to being Jewish than fighting antisemitism. To paraphrase outgoing JCRC Director Fagie Benstein, we as Jews should focus not just on the “oy” of being Jewish, but on the “joy” as well. After the Tree of Life massacre, friends and allies from many Christian denominations, the Islamic Center of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh Sikh Gurdwara, and so many others sprang into action, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars for the victims and their families and attending Shabbat services to stand in solidarity with the Jewish community when we were most vulnerable. I understand that here in Toledo, hundreds of people from diverse communities across the city attended the vigil that took place at Temple Shomer Emunim. These relationships did not begin on October 27, 2018. They are years in the making, involving dedication and willingness from every community to put our differences aside and focus on our similarities. With time, these relationships make our communities stronger together.

The moral of the story isn’t the incredible number of dollars raised, or even the strength of community partnerships and desire to stand with those who need it most, but the heartwarming endorsement that these efforts had from the ground up. We need the community’s support in our efforts to build a safer and more robust Jewish community and a better society for all. As the new Jewish Community Relations Council Director at the Federation and a proud new member of the Toledo Jewish community, I hope that I can help build upon the amazing success that Fagie and the JCRC has worked tirelessly to achieve. To quote Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel when reflecting on the march from Selma to Montgomery with Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr, “I prayed with my feet.” Will you?

If I can ask you, the reader, to start with just one action in this effort, it is to reach out to a neighbor or someone of a different political persuasion to get to know them, try to understand their perspective, and most of all, focus on how much you have in common – and how your differences can add value to the world. Once you do this, you’ll realize how much learning about others can teach you about yourself. As Americans and as Jews, we can be unified without being uniform.

Thank you to Fagie Benstein; to our chair, Sue Ann Hochberg; to our committee members, Tom Kasle, Rich Rusgo, and Dena Zack; and to our executive director, Stephen Rothschild. I look forward to the critical work ahead.

Join PJ Library Toledo for a fun and fast search for dreidels. We will be hiding 1,000 dreidels in the playground of Gan Yeladim preschool. Your mission is to find as many dreidels as you can in a safe a socially distant way.

Each participating child will receive a special dreidel grabber and a bucket in order to safely collect the tiny spinning treasures.

Snacks and prizes will be handed out at the end of the search.

Families will sign up for a 15 minute time slot. Only 20 individuals will be allowed to search for dreidels at a time. Families will be required to complete an on-site health screening and to adhere to appropriate safety measures which includes social distancing and mask wearing for all individuals over the age of two years old. Thank you for helping to keep our community safe.

FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE, WHO DO ISRAELIS DEPEND ON?
THEY DEPEND ON YOU.

Magen David Adom is Israel's official ambulance, blood-services, and disaster-relief organization. MDA has been on the front lines in the fight against coronavirus while also contending with terrorist attacks, car accidents, and other threats to Israeli lives.

But Magen David Adom is not government-funded. Its 25,000 EMTs and paramedics, most of them volunteers, rely on support from people like you for the supplies and equipment they need to perform their lifesaving work.

There are many ways to support Israel, but none that has a greater impact on its people than a gift to Magen David Adom. Your support isn't just changing lives — it's literally saving them.

Kristallnacht commemorated

On November 8, Kristallnacht was remembered in the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo commemoration which included a screening of the film Hidden. The screening was introduced by Hindea Markowicz, Director of the Ruth Fajerman Markowicz Holocaust Resource Center, and followed by Temple Shomer Emunim clergy Rabbi Sam Weinstein and Cantor Jen Roher. Hidden is an original spellbinding documentary about the hidden children of the Holocaust by Project Witness.

Experience a Memorable Overnight Jewish Initiative

In 2016, Experience a Memorable Overnight Jewish Initiative (EMOJI) was established by Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo and Toledo Jewish Community Foundation. Funded by Foundation's Long-term Community Needs Fund, the EMOJI program was created to make attending Jewish summer camp an option for all Toledo Jewish community children. EMOJI allows Jewish children in the Toledo area to attend Jewish summer camp for $250 for first-time campers, or at a very reduced cost for children who are returning to a Jewish camp.

Attendance at Jewish summer camp has been shown to strengthen participants' connection to their Jewish identity. As a result, they are more likely to value their Jewish heritage, support Jewish causes, and take on leadership roles within their Jewish communities as adults.

So, you're probably wondering...how does this work? To be eligible for the EMOJI program, the child must live in the greater Toledo area and be in second through tenth grade. The child's immediate family must also be current donors in good standing to Federation's Annual Campaign.

What do you need to do to be accepted? Have more questions? Contact Hallie Freed at hallie@Jewishtoledo.org or 419-724-0362 or fill out the EMOJI application online at www.jewishtoledo.org/emoji

The future of our Jewish community lies within our children. Federation and Foundation hope to connect you and your children to pivotal Jewish camp experiences that will help create positive and lasting memories for the rest of your lives.

Eagle Scout

Seventeen year old Avery Steinberg is a grandson of Buz and Doris Steinberg. Avery lives in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, with his father and mother, Neil and SeAnna Steinberg, and his two younger siblings, Shana and Gabe.

Avery has been an active member of the Boy Scouts since he was 11 years old and he has recently achieved the Eagle Scout award after completing all of the required Merit Badges plus completion of his Eagle Scout project. For his project, Avery helped to create a new, safe space for an archery and tomahawk range at a local summer camp. Together with his friends they cleared out a section of forest using chainsaws, rakes, shovels and other tools so that the archery and tomahawk range could be safely used by young children attending the summer camp.

Almost 100 hours of community service were devoted to completing this project all of which were arranged and organized by Avery.

He has also engaged in other scouting activities during the past seven years. For instance, he has attended two high adventure trips: 1) attending the National Jamboree in West Virginia, where he met boys scouts from all over the country; 2) attending a one-week canoeing trip in the wilderness in the Boundary Waters of northern Minnesota. Avery states “I am very proud to follow in my father’s footsteps in becoming an Eagle Scout”.

Avery is currently a senior at Kenston High School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio. He is an excellent student and a member of the National Honor Society, a radio announcer on the high school public radio station, a member of the school debate team and a member of the cross country/track teams. He is undecided on his choice of college at this time, but he is considering a future with a Business Degree.

It is important to note that a large part of Avery’s life involves his connection with his Jewish community. He is a ritual volunteer at his synagogue and he has volunteered for Torah readings on three occasions for Yom Kippur. For the past few months, he has volunteered to lead Friday night services at a local retirement home. Plus, with the support of the local Jewish community he has been to Israel two times in the last 3 years to explore and examine many amazing places that bind him to his Jewish heritage.

Dr. Blair Grubb recognized with the Shining Star Award. The iCare Shining Star Award recognizes UT Medical Center and UTP faculty, staff and/or students for their outstanding contributions that exemplify and support the mission of UTMCM and the principles of the iCARE program. Mazel tov, Dr. Grubb.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Etz Chayim Sisterhood is planning two special Chanukah programs.

The first event is a Chanukah Mitzvot Project. The Sisterhood will be assembling Chanukah gift packages for distribution to any local Etz Chayim congregant who would like one. Included in the package will be latkes, applesauce, sour cream, cookies, and candy. There is no charge for a gift package. This is Sisterhood’s way of saying Happy Chanukah to our fellow Etz Chayim members. If you would like a Chanukah gift package, please RSVP to the Etz Chayim office, 419-473-2401. People who request a package will be notified when they are ready to be picked up.

The second activity is a Chanukah Recipe Sharing event via Zoom. This event will take place Tuesday, December 15, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom.

Sharing recipes will be:

- Rochelle Black - Zucchini Latkes
- Elsa Leveton- Homemade Applesauce
- Andrea Lublin- Apple Cider Donuts

Please RSVP to Andrea Lublin at 419-450-3754 or Elsa Leveton at Etz Chayim, 419-473-2401, to receive the Zoom link.

The next Sisterhood meeting will be Tuesday, December 1, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. Please let Elsa know if you would like to participate.

SAVE THE DATE – JOINT SYNAGOGUE “UN”-BOOK CLUB

On Tuesday, January 26, 2021 at 1:00 p.m.on Zoom, the three synagogue Book Clubs will present “The Art & Meaning of Quilting in American Society”.
