Yom HaShoah program features remembrance of Cantor's father

Congregants and guests commemorated Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day) last month at Congregation B'nai Israel. Featured speaker, Cantor Ivor Lichterman discussed "The Last Cantor of Warsaw: Jacob Lichterman," a remembrance of his father. The event also included a memorial plaque installation video by Bruce and Sheila Post, a memorial service, a yellow candle lighting by religious school students (representing the yellow stars Jews were forced to wear), and a memorial candle lighting for the 6 million by descendants of Holocaust survivors.

The event was sponsored by the Ruth Fajerman Markowitz Holocaust Resource Center.
