opening night double feature

The Automat (Horn & Hardart Movie)

- and -

The Gefilte Film

Monday, July 11 | 7 p.m.

***Coffee & Pie Bar***

The Automat - The history of the now-defunct Horn and Hardart chain of coin-operated Automat restaurants is detailed through historical material and interviews—often hysterically funny—with New Yorkers and Philadelphians who recall the golden age of automated dining. Interviewees include Mel Brooks, Carl Reiner, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, and more. Running time – 79 minutes, English

The Gefilte Film - Each year the Hermelin family of Detroit comes together to celebrate Passover by eating gefilte fish. The signature dish becomes a lightning rod in which the Hermelins project their feelings about family, identity, tradition, struggle, loss-and as always, love. Running time – 11 minutes, English

closing night Greener Pastures

Monday, July 25 | 7 p.m.

***Israeli snack night***

Greener Pastures - Dov (75) a widower, lives in a nursing home where he feels like he's in jail. He dreams of buying back his old house and returning live there, but he has no money since losing his pension, and he blames the State. When he realizes that everyone in the nursing home consumes state-sponsored medical cannabis, he finds his way out. Not by smoking, but by selling cannabis, which he gets from the other tenants. When love, police, and the local mafia enter the picture, Dov finds himself at a crossroads where he must decide whether he would be willing to risk everything for what really matters to him. Running time - 90 minutes, Hebrew ### to life!

Fiddler's Journey to the Big Screen

Featuring in-person Q&A with actress

Neva Small (Chava)

Monday, July 18 | 7 p.m.

Fifty years after the life-affirming tale of Tevye the milkman leaped from stage to screen, the beloved movie's complete "making-of" odyssey is now told. Reimagining the Broadway hit into widescreen epic is visionary director Norman Jewison for whom the project proves deeply personal and transformative. Rare on-location footage and newly found stills put viewers in the director's chair, while the filmmakers, key collaborators, and cast – including lead actor Topol, composer John Williams, and productions designer Robert F. Boyle – offer surprising production anecdotes. Narrated by Jeff Goldblum, this engrossing insider account captures the triumphs and trials of the creative process, and Fiddler's unparalleled impact as a cultural force.

Neva Small is an American theatrical, film, and television actress and singer. She made her singing debut at the age of 10 with New York City Opera as Beverly Sills' daughter. She made her Broadway debut the following year in Jule Styne's musical Something More playing Barbara Cook's daughter. She is best known for her portrayal of Chava, Tevye's third daughter, in the 1971 film Fiddler on the Roof. Her signature role remains a classic. Neva has distinguished herself as a singer and actress in theaters and concert halls across America, on film, and on television. Running time - 88 minutes, English

Getting to know you: Jewish Senior, Family & Social Services Staff

Jewish Senior, Family & Social Services (JSFSS) offers the Toledo Jewish community a broad range of community programming and crucial resources, both virtually and (safely) in person. Led by Ben Malczewski, Vice President Senior, Family and Social Services, JSFSS staff is dedicated to its continued support of the community and its everchanging needs. Toledo Jewish News will be spotlighting members of the JSFSS staff in upcoming issues of the publication.

Stacy Willis, LSW, MSW, Food Pantry and Support Services Coordinator

Toledo Jewish News: Can you describe your main responsibilities at JSFSS?

Stacy Willis: When guests come to visit our food pantry, I take a moment to introduce myself and let them know that I am available to discuss any other services they may need, including additional referrals. Similarly, I also meet with older adults in our Jewish community and assist them however they may need. We partner with a variety of homecare companies, assist with transportation, as well as refer our older adults to specific services as needed.

TJN: What led you to this type of work?

SW: Throughout my adult years I have lost touch with my Jewish roots and have been looking for ways to reintegrate. This social work position came to my awareness when I wasn't even looking to change jobs, and it seemed as though applying could not only be a very positive career change but could also satisfy my wanting to rejoin the Jewish community. Since starting, I can honestly say that both were accurate assumptions.

TJN: What energizes you at work?

SW: Social work can be a very broad career title; you can do almost anything within human services. However, this position has shown me what "true social work" can be. Spending my days finding ways to genuinely help people work through their barriers couldn't be any more rewarding.

TJN: What energizes you outside of work?

SW: "Energize" might not be exactly the word, in fact it could be quite the opposite, but this past year I became a mother, and it has been the most rewarding experience of my life. I can honestly say I didn't know the true meaning of the word JOY until she came along and showed me.

TJN: If you could be any fictional character, who would you choose?

SW: Mowgli from The Jungle Book. It'd be a dream to live in the jungle alongside animals (while being able to communicate with them) and eating food from the earth like bugs under a log. I think Baloo would be the greatest best friend to spend my days with.

Getting to know you: Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo staff

Marnie Younker, Director of Inclusion and Community Engagement

Toledo Jewish News: Can you describe your main responsibilities at Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo?

Marnie Younker: I'm responsible for PJ Library®, young family and young adult/Next Jewish Generation programming. The goal is to develop the next generation of Jewish leaders.

TJN: What are some of your biggest goals or aspirations for your role?

MY: To attract new people and new families to Jewish Toledo while keeping up the engagement and involvement of the amazing people and families already involved.

TJN: What led you to this type of work?

MY: This work allows me to align my beliefs and values to my job. I personally have gained so much in a few years from the programming at the Federation. It started with attending the PJ Playdates, which led to sending our son to Gan Yeladim Preschool. It's an amazing program, and we have seen him grow and thrive. We've made new friends (and even reconnected with an old friend from camp!) and have met new people. Last summer, we sent our son to the Federation's Camp Inspiration, which led to us joining Temple Shomer Emunim.

My mom moved here from Cleveland last July, and she has been so welcomed into the community. For me and my family, the impact of the JF-GT's programs have been life changing. I want every Jewish person in northwest Ohio to have that same experience and feeling, and I want to be a part of that. This is my community, my family's community, so I will do what I can to help insure its future.

TJN: What energizes you at work?

MY: It's exciting to learn new things and get to know new people. There is a lot of energy and enthusiasm for the work we do. I'm especially lucky because I get to work on a phenomenal team with some amazing women (like Sherry, Colette, and Hallie!) every day!

TJN: What energizes you outside of work?

MY: I love spending time with family and friends, but the person who energizes me the most is our son Simon. He is 5 and is the absolute best! He brings me a tremendous amount of joy every single day.

TJN: What is the most unique part about working for JFGT?

MY: The deep connection people in the community have with the Federation. Jewish Toledo is so unique, small but very, very mighty! I love being a part of it.

TJN: What is something a Toledo Jewish News reader may not know about you?

MY: I'm from Cleveland originally, I grew up in Mayfield Heights. I have a twin brother who lives in Columbia, Missouri.

TJN: What are a few words your closest family and friends would use to describe you?

MY: Passionate, dedicated, thoughtful, enthusiastic, fun, happy, friendly

TJN: What is one of your favorite family traditions?

MY: When I was growing up, my extended family lived all over (Ohio, Florida, Texas, California) but every year for Winter Break, we would all travel to my Bobie and Zadie's in Altamonte Springs, Florida (Orlando). We all stayed together with the kids in one room. The years we were able to celebrate Hanukkah together made it extra special. But there was always Chinese food and going to the movies on Christmas. We don't all make it down to Florida anymore, but I still love when we all converge on one location to be together for a simcha!

CREATING A JEWISH LEGACY

WHY NOW?

When nothing is certain, the one thing we’ve been able to count on is the gift of our Jewish heritage. Our nurturing community. A sense of belonging. Core principles and traditions that have given our lives meaning and purpose. Now those very gifts are facing their own future of uncertainty.

It’s crucial that we, the leaders of today, pave the way for our leaders of tomorrow.

A legacy gift is a demonstration of your belief in the continuity of Jewish life for generations to come. By leaving financial resources to Jewish causes you care deeply about, you can ensure future generations have an opportunity to embrace our heritage.

LEGACY GIVING

HOW IT WORKS

With a little planning, you can make the gift of a lifetime by creating a legacy gift. You can make sure your generous support of our Jewish community’s charitable causes lasts for generations by establishing an endowment fund, empowering you to continue the work of your heart and ensure that the traditions and institutions that mean so much to you will exist well into the future.

The term “legacy gift” covers a wide range of options. All can help you make a meaningful gift to the future of our Jewish community.

Wills and Living Trusts

In your will or living trust, you can make a gift of a specific asset, a stated amount or a percentage of your residual estate.

Life Insurance

You can make a gift of your life insurance policy to Federation/Foundation or name Federation/Foundation as the beneficiary.

IRA Charitable Rollover

If you are eligible, distributing IRA assets directly to the Federation for an annual campaign gift or the Foundation for a PACE gift or Designated Fund are ways to make an impactful gift and decrease the tax burden on your family.

When you create a Jewish legacy, you take an important step toward strengthening Jewish life for generations to come. Planning your gift now will help ensure your grandchildren can enjoy the same rich traditions and closeness of community that have given your life so much meaning and purpose.

The future starts with you.

Lions and Poms gather to celebrate 50 years of success

Jewish Toledo’s Lions and Pomegranates came together last month at Stone Oak Country Club to celebrate women’s philanthropy and its significance to the vibrancy and success of our community. Not only have several of our female donors given generously for decades, but many of them come from generations of Toledo philanthropists who helped build Jewish Toledo into what it is today. The stories shared at the event were a testament to the power of giving to a legacy that will shape the future of our community.

We are so grateful for all our Lions and Pomegranates as well as every woman who plays a role in keeping our small yet mighty community thriving.

London: November 1905. England and the world are changing. Into the rooms of Sherlock Holmes come Nikola Tesla and Thomas Edison—with new inventions that will alter the course of human history—only both inventions have gone missing. Can Holmes, Watson, and Irene Adler somehow unravel the latest diabolical scheme of Marie Chartier—evil daughter of the late Professor Moriarty? Can world peace be achieved by the most powerful weapon ever created? Can death itself be overcome by a scientific genius? And can Sherlock Holmes survive the greatest personal loss of his career?

Local student initiates group art project to bring cheer to young Ukrainian refugees

Allison Sachs, a 16-year-old sophomore at Notre Dame Academy in Toledo, recently organized an art creation and letter-writing project for Ukrainian refugees and enlisted her former elementary and middle school, West Side Montessori, to assist. The goal, she explained, was to provide cheer and encouraging messages during these dark and uncertain times of war.

"I am an avid news reader and I find it important to keep up with any and all global events," she said. "Ever since I found out about Russia's action in Ukraine, I have been deeply concerned about the well-being of the Ukrainian people. It felt unreal that the gruesome mass murders of Ukrainian citizens and the countless, inhumane war crimes could even possibly take place in modern day, and I knew that I wanted to do something to help..."

"I specifically chose a letter project instead of a fundraiser because I knew that not all families would be donating to Ukrainian support groups or having educational conversations with their kids before donating. I thought that encouraging the younger students to write letters and create drawings for the refugees would be a great way to include children in discussions about the war and help them feel like they could positively contribute to a situation that may feel unsettling and out of their control. I also thought letters would be more meaningful to them than a simple donation because then the kids would be actively thinking about who might receive their cards and how they could make a difference, as well."

Allison presented her project to the elementary and third level students at West Side Montessori and provided an age-appropriate background on the war in Ukraine, played videos about Ukrainian culture and symbols, and discussed what it means to be a refugee.

"They got very excited, she added. "The kids were very respectful and attentive, and I was surprised to find out how much they already knew about the conflict."

Allison, who is the daughter of Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo (JFGT) board member, Lauren Sachs, reached out to JFGT, which recently raised over $170,000 for the JFNA Ukraine Crisis Fund for help in delivering the cards and letters overseas.

"Allison is an impressive and exceptional young Jewish woman," said Stephen Rothschild, JFGT CEO. "She conceived, researched, and executed this project from start to finish.

It was a privilege to help her deliver these messages of hope directly to the Ukrainian children dislocated by this horrific war... Amazingly, it took only two days to deliver the students' art and letters to Dror Israel's team in Warsaw, Poland from Toledo."

Dror Israel's mission is to educate and empower young people and those on the social and geographic periphery to actively contribute to their communities and to create a shared society in Israel. In response to recent events, Dror Israel educators set up day camp-education centers for Ukrainian Children in refugee camps. JFGT has allocated $10,000 to the Dror Israel Akko Educators' Kibbutz for their Chofesh Bitui program and pledged an additional $20,000 over the next two years. The Toledo and Akko Jewish communities are partners in the Western Galilee & Central Area Consortium of Partnership2Gether.

Mirit Sulema, a Dror Israel staff member, reflected on the significance of receiving the art and letters from Allison and the other contributors. She stated, "In the middle of the training course, we took a break and handed out to the teens drawings sent to us by children from Toledo, Ohio, USA. We told the teenagers about the girl who arranged it, and that she also chose leadership and did something meaningful with the power she has, just like them. It was an amazing connection; they were really excited to receive the letters.

According to Mirit, the energy of the training course was already very high, and the drawings lifted the energy of all even higher.

In a "thank you" video sent to Allison, Mirit explained that the students received the letters, drawings, and paintings.

"You can see that this brings so much joy and happiness to the kids, so thank you so much for doing this and thank you so much for sending your drawings all the way from Ohio to Poland," she said.

Nargiz, age 10, added, "It excites me to know that a girl our age organized so many children for such a thing."

Editor's note: visit JewishToledo.org/Allison to view Mirit's video.

Women of B’nai Israel sponsoring Tikkun Olam project

Miriam Beckerman getting ready to deliver Hanukkah goody bags

The Women of Congregation B’nai Israel have been celebrating Rosh Chodesh with programming open to women of all the local congregations. As part of the Rosh Chodesh activities, a Tikkun Olam (healing the world) project is included with each program. The goal has been to identify a need either in the Jewish or general community and provide support to benefit the organization working to meet that need. In some cases, the women who attend the Rosh Chodesh programs are able to provide supplies and, in other cases, financial contributions.

Some of the organizations included: Jewish Senior, Family, and Social Services; MAZON - A Jewish

Response to Hunger; Hannah’s Socks; Sylvania Area Family Services; Ronald McDonald House; and Women of Toledo. Additionally, through the Rosh Chodesh programs, Hanukkah goody bags were provided to Jewish seniors living in community settings, and a meal was provided to members of the Sylvania Township Police Department.

For Rosh Chodesh Iyar, the Tikkun Olam project benefitted HIAS, the international humanitarian organization. HIAS was selected because of their efforts specifically in support of Ukrainian refugees. HIAS is working with partner agencies in Ukraine and neighboring countries in myriad ways to provide services to refugees who have been displaced because of the Russian invasion of Ukraine. The need is great, and through the efforts of the Women of CBI, combined with efforts of others around the world supporting HIAS, the goal is to provide hope to the people of Ukraine. The women who attended the program on May 2 raised $1,093 for HIAS.

B'nai Mitzvah We Honor Our B'nai Mitzvah

Skylar Rose Sachs will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah at Temple Shomer Emunim on Saturday, June 11, 2022. Skylar is the daughter of Lauren Sachs and the late Dr. Bradley Sachs, z”l, as well as a loving sister to Allison. Proud grand-parents are Maida Genser of Tamarac, Florida, Kathy Green of West Bloomfield, Michigan, and Herbert Korn of Lexington, Massachusetts.

Skylar is a seventh grader at West Side Montessori School where she has been a recipient of the Leadership Scholarship. At school, Skylar has participated in the Power of the Pen writing competition. Skylar was also the 7th grade essay competition winner for the 2022 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Art, Essay & Multimedia contest hosted by the Ohio Civil Rights Commission and won an award from the Toledo Bar Association for the 2022 Caty Armstrong Memorial Law Day Essay Contest. In addition, Skylar is a member of Daryl Jervis Dance Studio’s High Voltage Dance Company. In her free time, Skylar enjoys reading, traveling, listening to music, and spending time with friends.

Skylar completed a mitzvah project with The Victory Center in honor of her late father's work as an oncologist. When the Victory Center moved into their new location last summer, Skylar helped to beautify the entrance by enhancing the existing landscaping and procuring donations of trees and plants. Skylar and her family hope this project will be meaningful for all who use the facility. Skylar looks forward to celebrating her Bat Mitzvah with her family and friends.

Safety Tips

Dave Tullis, Jewish Federation Community Asset, Safety and Security Manager helps us stay protected with some valuable safety tips.

VEHICLE SECURITY

You Can Prevent Car Theft!

Most cars are taken by amateurs who can be stopped easily. Protect your car against this type of crime by taking the following sensible precautions:

Lock up

- An unlocked car is an open invitation to a car thief. Lock up when you leave your car and take the keys with you.
- Lock the trunk or tailgate.
- Close all windows - professional thieves have tools that unlock cars through the smallest openings.
- Be sure vent or wind-wing windows are shut tight and locked.
- When you park the car, remove cellular phones, stereos, and other valuable possessions. Do not leave gift-wrapped packages or cameras lying on the seat. Lock all valuables in your trunk or take them with you.
- The most stolen items are purses, backpacks, cell phones, computers, other electronics, money, credit cards and prescription drugs.
- Lock your car even if you are making a quick stop at the gas station, convenience store or minimal.

Park Carefully

- Don't leave an auto in unattended public parking lots for an extended period. A car is five times more likely to be stolen from an unattended lot than from the street or attended lot.
- Try to park your vehicle in the driveway (if possible) instead of on the roadway. The MOST important reminder is to always lock your vehicle, even when it is parked in your own driveway or garage.
- Thieves often target vehicles in residential neighborhoods after dark. They also tend to target parking lots of hotels, restaurants, gyms and entertainment complexes knowing that many victims leave valuables behind in their vehicles.
- If possible, park your car in a lot where you don't have to leave your keys.
- Never attach a tag with your name and address to your key ring. If the keys are lost or stolen, the tag will lead the thief directly to your car and your home. If you must leave your keys with a parking attendant, leave only the ignition key.
- At night, park in well-lit areas with lots of people around.
- Turn wheels sharply toward the curb when parking, this makes it extra difficult for thieves to tow your car.

Operation I.D.

- With an electric engraver, etch your driver's license number (preceded by the letters CA) on stereo equipment and other valuable items.
- Record your vehicle identification number (located on a small metal plate on the dashboard of newer cars) and store it in a safe place.

- Keep the vehicle registration in your wallet or purse, not in your car.
- Have easy access to a list of your credit cards, account numbers (last 4 digits only) and their contact phone numbers to quickly close the accounts if you become a theft victim. Thieves generally attempt to utilize the cards at stores/gas stations immediately and before you get an opportunity to end their "shopping spree."

Use Anti-Theft Devices

- When buying a car, check the manufacturer's list of anti-theft options, such as interior hood and trunk releases, locking steering columns and others.
- Consider the purchase and installation of security devices, such as:
  - Alarm device to activate a siren, horn or lights - or all three - to frighten the thief away.
  - Device that attaches to the steering wheel or brake pedal.
  - Fuel switch to prevent fuel from reaching the carburetor.
  - Interior hood lock release.
  - Locking devices for batteries, wheels, decks, etc.
  - Locking gas cap.
  - Second ignition switch or kill switch to prevent electrical current from reaching the coil distributor.

Carjacking

This is a violent, random form of auto theft. A driver of any vehicle can be a target of someone with a weapon. It can happen anywhere, day or night. Here are some precautions:

- Keep your doors locked.
- Park in well-lit, busy areas.
- Be alert of your surroundings, of people approaching your vehicle.
- Stick with the traffic; avoid lightly traveled streets, especially after dark.
- Keep car and house keys on separate key chains.
- Keep the garage door opener in your purse or briefcase.
- When stopped in traffic, always leave enough room to make an emergency getaway.
- If someone is threatening you with a weapon, give up the vehicle - it's not worth your life.
