The Jewish Toledo community, in partnership with Congregation Etz Chayim, Congregation B’nai Israel, Temple Shomer Emunim, and Chabad House of Toledo, are planning a virtual family get-together.

Sunday, June 28, 1-2 p.m.

The Jewish Toledo community, in partnership with Congregation Etz Chayim, Congregation B’nai Israel, Temple Shomer Emunim, and Chabad House of Toledo, are planning a virtual family get-together.

Please join us for a much-needed
festive, fun, warm, virtual family party

No fundraising and no agenda other than celebrating family including those on both sides of the ocean.

A family reunion of course includes our Israeli mishpacha (family). Yoni Alon, our beloved “Israel at Your Door Step” shaliach (emissary) has agreed to join us. Yoni has endeared himself to our community. He and all the program partners he brings to our community represent the very best of Israel.

RSVP to Colette at registration@jewishtoledo.org to get your link to the party!
Recent changes in federal law that may impact your decision whether to make distributions from your IRA this year.

The SECURE Act, which became law effective January 1, increased the beginning age for Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) from IRAs and other qualified retirement plans from 70 1/2 to 72 for individuals that had not reached age 70 1/2 by December 31, 2019.

The CARES Act, which became law in March, waived RMDs in calendar year 2020. Ordinarily, you have until April 1 of the year following the year in which you reach the beginning age to take your first RMD. You would have an RMD for the year in which you reach the beginning age and another RMD for the following year. If, for example, you reached 70 1/2 in 2019, you could have taken your 2019 RMD in 2019, or you could have waited until April 1, 2020. Either way, you would have been required to take your 2020 RMD by December 31, 2020. The CARES Act waives both RMDs.

While the SECURE Act changed the minimum age for RMDs, it did not change the minimum age for Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs). If you are age 70 1/2 or older, you are still eligible to make QCDs.

With a QCD, you may give as much as $100,000 per year to your IRA directly to the Federation or other charity. You will not be entitled to a federal charitable income tax deduction, but withdrawals from a traditional IRA are taxable as ordinary income, QCDs are excluded from federal taxable income. QCDs may not be made for deposit into a donor advised fund, and they may not be made to supporting foundations or private non-operating foundations or to establish gifts from which you or another person will receive periodic payments, such as a gift annuity. QCDs can be applied against your annual RMD, when you have one. Note: The SECURE Act eliminated the age limit on deductible contributions to IRAs. Now allowable QCDs are subject to reduction for deductible contributions to your IRA after you reach age 70 1/2.

You may feel no urgency to withdraw funds from your IRA this year, when there is no RMD. Giving a QCD, however, may be a savvy move if you have large IRA balances.

QCD Strategies for 2020
1. Lower future RMDs. Recent volatility in the financial markets may have taken a toll on your IRA account balances, but if IRAs recover, as we hope they will do, higher balances will mean higher RMDs, and they, in turn, will mean higher taxes. QCDs that you make now will help you lower RMDs in the future.

2. For non-itemizers. The standardized deduction increased considerably in 2017. If you do not itemize, QCDs may be particularly valuable to you. QCDs are excluded from income, so they will not impact Medicare Part B or Part D premiums that are based on your adjusted gross income (AGI) or other itemized deductions with AGI-based limits. Note: State income tax considerations could impact your QCD decision, particularly if you pay tax in a state in which QCDs are included in taxable income.

3. Bunching QCDs in 2021. If you ordinarily make QCDs of less than $100,000 per year, you may choose to delay QCDs that you normally would have made in 2020 until January 2021, after the RMD waiver expires. Then you can make your normal 2021 QCDs later in the year. If you plan to “bunch” your QCDs and defer payment of your 2020 Campaign gift or other commitments to 2021, please let us know to help us in our cash flow planning.

4. Withdrawal and gift. You could make charitable gifts with amounts you withdraw from your IRA, using tax deductions to offset the taxable income that withdrawals will generate. These cash contributions could be used to fund donor advised fund or supporting organizations up to the standard limit of 60 percent of AGI. In 2020, other cash contributions can take your charitable deductions to 100 percent of AGI. Contributions above the applicable AGI limit may be carried forward for five years. Note: This strategy may impact AGI-based Medicare premiums and other deduction limits and may not be favorable where state income taxes apply. Be sure to discuss this strategy in advance with your professional tax advisor.

5. Gift appreciated assets to heirs and leave IRA assets to charity. The SECURE Act eliminated the “Stretch” IRA for non-spouse inheritors (with limited exceptions). Until passage of the SECURE Act, non-spouse inheritors of IRAs could take distributions over the course of their anticipated life expectancy. Now, most non-spouse inheritors are required to take full distribution within 10 years, which could expose them to a much higher tax bill. If you expect to have a taxable estate, QCDs that you make now can reduce future estate taxes and preserve non-IRA assets that will not be burdened with income taxes for your heirs.

RMD Corrective Measure
If you made a withdrawal this year before Congress waived the RMD requirement, your withdrawal may be eligible for a tax-free rollover to a plan that accepts rollover contributions, such as a new IRA. Under guidance issued by the IRS, withdrawals taken from February 1 to May 15 must be rolled over by July 15, 2020. Withdrawals that occurred prior to February 1 may not be rolled over under this guidance, because the 60-day tax-free rollover deadline expired prior to April 1. Note: Your professional tax advisor or IRA trustee can sort through the technical rules that apply to rollovers with you.

JFS Highlights

During these difficult times of the COVID-19 pandemic, Jewish Family Service faces new challenges and community needs head-on while maintaining the myriad essential services that have become the safety net of Jewish Toledo. Here are a few highlights:

- An emergency fund has helped families by paying some living expenses including rent and utilities. It also pays for meals for community members who are not Temple Shomer Emunim members but need assistance paying for meals they receive through the Temple's Mitzvah Meals Project.

- Care Management addresses emerging client needs, including financial needs, in a confidential and expedient manner. In-Home Care Services continues to work with clients and assist them in remaining as independent and as safe as possible.

- The Patient Advocate Program offers trained volunteers who accompany Jewish seniors to medical appointments.

- Refugee support continues with check-ins, translation services, assistance with virtual English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, and help with official documents from government agencies.

- The JFS Family Pantry continues to help numerous families and individuals, including 12-14 families in which grandparents are raising their grandchildren. In addition to regular Pantry clients who pick up food, paper products, and personal items, the Pantry has delivered packages of food and personal items every two weeks to seven Jewish seniors living independently. Also, thankfully, the Pantry was able to purchase a freezer. The Summer Food for Kids program continues again this year thanks to a very generous donor.

- For Passover, 42 baskets with all the ingredients to make a homemade Passover meal plus candles were delivered by Wick/Wisniewski Funeral Home and volunteers who had signed up to help during the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Volunteer programs continue to assist individuals with minimal technology experience to help them participate in community events and services that during the pandemic are operating virtually.

- Facility Case Management continues to assist all clients and families without interruption of service.

- The new Facebook group Midwest Jewish Chat was created as a digital space or “chat room” for individuals to discuss current topics effecting the Jewish community, mutual support, and general communication among members. Individuals can request admittance by searching Midwest Jewish Chat on Facebook.

JFS is here for your emergency needs. We have access to food, emergency funding, and volunteers. Let us know how we can help, or just call us if you want to talk.

Stuck at Home, but Having Fun: Engaging Young Children Jewishly During the Pandemic

Jewish federations of North America published the following article on their website about how Federations and their agencies are providing activities and content to entertain children and foster community. Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo was featured.

After weeks at home, like kids across the country, Ashley Chenault’s three children missed the friends they usually see at PJ Library activities. So Ashley was thrilled when she and her kids got to participate along with their friends in a fun virtual scavenger hunt, run by the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta’s PJ Library program. Parents and kids tuned in as Abbe Adler, who creates programming for Atlanta’s PJ Library families, led them through an engaging Jewish journey. She sent children to search their homes for items that represented each holiday and then virtually share them with other families. As they searched, parents and kids shared stories and memories.

“It provided a bit of normalcy for the kids to do an activity together,” said Ashley. It was a relief for her to see her 8-year-old daughter Khalia interacting with her friends. This innovative program created togetherness among 14 isolated families. All over the U.S., quarantined parents are looking for new ways to engage their children in Jewish activities and connect with other Jewish families. Federations, JCCs, preschools, synagogues and camps are meeting this need with a wide range of creative programs.

“It’s uncharted territory for everyone, so we are learning as we go,” said Hallie Freed, community program director at the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo. “These families look to us as their source for Jewish life.” Freed found that a simple activity can have a big impact when she organized a virtual pizza party for 15 families in this Jewish community. She had pizza delivered to their doorsteps, and the kids were grateful for it. It’s the simplest thing I’ve ever done,” she said, “but they appreciated it.”

Parents in Los Angeles can visit the local PJ Library Facebook page twice a day to find fun, meaningful videos to engage and distract their children. There are simple art projects, science experiments, songs, and stories, all with a Jewish twist. Risa Goldstein, director of PJ Library for the Jewish Federation of Greater Los Angeles, works hard to provide meaningful content to isolated Jewish families with young children. “People can come to it when they want to; there’s no pressure to participate live.”

Goldstein’s team includes four community connectors who focus on families with kids aged 0-2 in specific neighborhoods. These parents, Goldstein says, are really eager for opportunities to interact with each other, and the PJ Library connectors provide it, convening them on Zoom for coffee chats, trivia nights, and other social encounters where they can relax together.

As summer approaches, Jewish camps are beginning to announce their decisions about whether they will open. Meanwhile, some camps are reaching out to campers and their families right now, strengthening the camp community and making newcomers feel welcome during a challenging time.

Tamarack Camps, an overnight camp affiliated with the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, has offered online versions of activities campers love, from arts and crafts to sports and baking. But it’s the weekly community havdallah service that has most successfully bridged the distances between campers and relieved some of the isolation they are feeling. At Jewish summer camps, the ceremony that concludes Shabbat is a beloved ritual. The spirituality of the havdallah service, with its familiar blessings and songs, provides comfort and connection.

“For our family, virtual havdallah brings a sense of normalcy. Our kids get to see their friends and it feels like they’re actually at camp,” said Hallie Steckler, a parent of Tamarack campers.

“In this unpredictable time, it’s something predictable that my kids can look forward to and that everyone, regardless of age, can participate in.”

TISHA B’AV

Tisha B’Av, the Fast of the Ninth of Av, is a day of mourning to commemorate the many tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people, many of which have occurred on the ninth of Av. Tisha B’Av means “the ninth (day) of Av”. This year it falls on Wednesday evening/Thursday, July 29/30.

Although this holiday is primarily meant to commemorate the destruction of the Temple, it is appropriate to consider on this day the many other tragedies of the Jewish people, many of which occurred on this day, most notably the expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 and from England in 1290.

Tisha B’Av is the culmination of a three week period of increasing mourning, beginning with the fast of the 17th of Tammuz, before the First Temple was destroyed. During this three week period, weddings and other parties are not permitted, and people refrain from cutting their hair. From the first to the ninth of Av, it is customary to refrain from eating meat or drinking wine (except on the Shabbat) and from wearing new clothing.

This year, Tisha B’Av will be observed beginning on Wednesday, July 29th at 9:40 p.m. and all day, Thursday, July 30th, ending at 9:30 p.m.

Obituary

Richard L. Kasle

Richard L. Kasle died peacefully on May 21, 2020, at age 92.
Born in Toledo in 1927 to Rebecca Baer and Joe Kasle, Dick attended DeVilbiss High School and The Ohio State University.
The Toledo business community may remember Dick as an honorable man with great integrity during his many years as President of Katy Steel and Aluminum Co. and Toledo Paper Box Company.
The local Jewish community will remember him as one of the last of its "Greatest Generation" of leaders. Dick was passionate and compassionate for Jews here and abroad. As a community leader, he was thorough, no-nonsense and practical in assessing situations. He listened with his heart, making decisions that affected the well-being and dignity of Jews everywhere.
His volunteer efforts were numerous; here are the most important. Dick was a Campaign Chair (at age 34, the youngest ever at the time) as well as a President of the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo. He was a board member to the former Darlington House and to the former Jewish Community Center of Toledo. He also chaired numerous committees, was on the Israel Bonds campaign cabinet and was a Toledo delegate to the Council of Jewish Federations.
His family will remember Dad (Poppy to his grandkids) as an avid reader, golfer, tennis player and clothes horse whose second love was gardening. The Toledo Blade repeatedly asked to photograph that garden. He repeatedly declined.
Dad predeceased Mom Barbara Rosenzweig Kasle (his first love) with whom he enjoyed 60 years. He is survived by sons, Thomas (Jan) Kasle of Toledo, Andrew (Donna) Kasle of Cleveland, OH, and Joseph (Deborah) Kasle of Milwaukee, WI; grandchildren, Joshua (Moran) Robbins, Dora Kasle (Jacob Cook), Ari Kasle (Stephanie Bernard), Nick Kasle (Jami Shlensky), Lucas Kasle; and great-grandchildren, Jonathan Henry Robbins and Harrison Alan Cook.
Thanks to Zoom, Dad watched Harrison’s Bris ceremony and bid farewell to all of the above within a week of his passing.
Dad instilled his particular dry observational humor (AKA That Kasle Sense of Humor) in his sons, who imparted it to their children. Example: Mom (or G to the grandkids) loved to bake. After she was cremated in 2009, we began saying “In the end, G left Poppy 7 pounds of frozen butter and Poppy left G in the closet. What a life.”
Dad will also be cremated. We will hold a memorial service later.
We would like to thank Kingston Rehabilitation of Perrysburg and Hospice of Northwest Ohio (Perrysburg) for their care and attention to Dad.
Memorial tributes suggested in the form of contributions to the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo, Congregation B’nai Israel in Sylvania, OH, The Toledo Botanical Garden or The Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center in Whitefish Bay, WI.
Arrangements by the Robert H. Wick/Wisniewski Funeral Home (419)535-5840.

Words of Wisdom
As I reflected and researched to find an appropriate bit of advice, I found myself narrowing the choices to three. I thought it would be good to have variety. However, as I reread them, I think they are very much the same. All the better!
The first, a favorite saying of my mom.
The second, from Pirket Avot, the Ethics of our Fathers.
The third, a simple, stunning poem.

From my beloved mother, of blessed memory, Ruth Berkowitz,
Treat your family like friends, and your friends like family.

Pirket Avot, 1:6, from Yehoshua ben Perachyah
Appoint a teacher for yourself, acquire a friend for yourself; And judge everyone favorably.

Outwitted by Edwin Markham
He drew a circle that shut me out, Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout. But Love and I had the wit to win, We drew a circle that took him in!

Marriage announcement

Susan and Steve Kaufman happily announce the marriage of their son, Eli Kaufman to Emily Waise, daughter of Susan Maxwell and Ron Waise of Needham, MA.

Eli is the grandson of Calvin and Bernice Katz and E. Mitchell and Deena Kaufman, all of blessed memory. Eli received his Bachelor Degree in Communications and a minor in Psychology from Goucher College in 2015. Eli works as a Sales Manager at Packback, an education technology startup company in downtown Chicago.

Emily received her Bachelor Degree in Spanish with a double minor in Psychology and Education from Goucher College in 2016. Emily is an administrative assistant at Chicago Sinai Congregation in downtown Chicago.

After over a year of planning, Eli and Emily’s plans had to change due to the rules and regulations laid out in Illinois regarding gatherings and COVID-19. Within two weeks of their original wedding date, the two of them planned and orchestrated a ZOOM wedding.

The outdoor ZOOM wedding ceremony took place on May 24, 2020 at Anshe Emet Synagogue in Chicago, IL. The wedding was co-officiated by Cantor Jamie Glotz, formerly the Cantor at Congregation B’nai Israel in Sylvania, via Zoom from Temple Ahavah in Needham, MA and with Rabbi David Russo who was present from Anshe Emet Synagogue in Chicago, IL.
