The Miltons, it seems, are the American Dream. For three generations, they’ve run a successful family banking business, enjoyed New York City’s cultural life, and passed summers on their private island in Maine. But when the youngest generation of Miltons must consider selling the island, they stumble across family secrets that force them to ask, at whose expense are they living their dream?

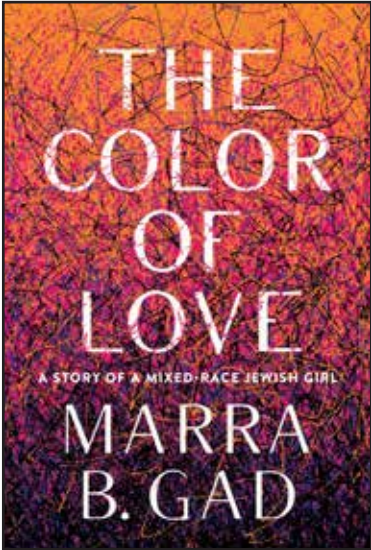

It’s a simple equation: You can’t get what you want unless you ask for it. But this is often easier said than done, especially if you are afraid of confrontation or hurting someone’s feelings. The stories in I Wanted Fries with That reveal real-world situations and show the myriad ways that you can speak up in your daily life and ask for what you want so that you can get exactly what you need.

Thirty-nine women of Special Operations Executive went to war, and fourteen of them never came home. They broke barriers, smashed taboos, and altered the course of history. D-Day Girls focuses on the inspiring, dramatic story of three of the women who were recruited to lay the groundwork for the D-Day invasion.

Annette Feldman is turning 70 and she’s determined to use this milestone birthday as an opportunity to bring her family together on a cruise—whether they like it or not. But all does not go according to Annette’s plan. Over the course of the cruise, troublesome family secrets emerge, sibling rivalries resurface, and old and new resentments are felt, culminating in an all-out brawl on the last night of the trip.

In 1970, three-day-old Marra B. Gad was adopted by a white Jewish family in Chicago. For her parents, it was love at first sight—but they quickly realized the world wasn’t entirely ready for a family like theirs. At turns heart-wrenching and heartwarming, Marra B. Gad has written an inspirational, moving memoir proving that when all else is stripped away, love is where we return, and love is our greatest inheritance.

Toledo Jewish Community Foundation

On Sunday, September 8, the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation hosted its annual leadership event at Temple Shomer Emunim. The luncheon was an opportunity for the Foundation to thank its generous planned giving and endowment donors, and to celebrate two of the Foundation's most dedicated philanthropists: Mickey Rosenberg, who received the Endowment Achievement Award, and Gerald Getz, z"l, who was honored with the Legacy Award. Through a special video message, Foundation Chairman Dan Steinberg noted that over the past 40 years, the Foundation has grown its assets from $0 to approximately $45 million; last year alone, the Foundation granted $1 million to local, national and international charities. Following the luncheon, the premier a capella group Maccabeats rocked Jewish Toledo with their amazing vocal act; 450 community members of all ages enjoyed the fantastic concert together.

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo

How to contribute to Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo/Toledo Jewish Community Foundation

- Donate online at www.jewishtoledo.org
- Call Tina Stieben at 419-724-0371 or email her at tina@JewishToledo.org for stock or IRA gifts
- Donate or pay by mail by sending your pledge cards and payments to:
Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo,
Attention: Kathy Sherion,
6465 Sylvania Avenue, Sylvania, Ohio 43560

Please note that checks need to be post-marked by December 31, 2019 for a 2019 tax deduction.

Gift Policy Statement Regarding Donations of Stock Stock Payments

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo is happy to accept donations of stock as payment for pledges made to the Annual Campaign or to the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation. Stock gifts need to be received by 12 p.m. (noon) on December 26, 2019 in order to sell before the market closes. Please note the brokerage firm may charge a transaction fee up to an amount of $100.00.

It should be noted that our procedure is as follows for accepting stock:

Whenever a gift of stock is made, the donor receives a confirmation letter within 10 business days of receiving the check that the gift was made. Normally upon consultation with financial professionals, this is the date used when valuing the gift for IRS tax purposes.

After being notified that a gift of stock has been made, either from the donor or a stockbroker, the stock will then transfer into the Federation's/Foundation's account and the stock will be sold by the next business day after receipt into the account. The net proceeds of the sale of stock will be applied against any outstanding pledges for the individual. The donor will be notified, in writing, what the net proceeds were on the same written notice mentioned above.

To expedite this process, it is extremely helpful if the donor, his/her stockbroker or financial advisor notifies Federation's Department of Finance verbally or through email when a gift of stock is made. By following this procedure, the timing between the gift being made and the sale of the stock is greatly reduced.

Please contact Tina Stieben, CFO, at tina@jewishtoledo.org or 419-724-0371, or 419-346-5397 (cell) for further assistance.

IRA Charitable Rollover Checks

Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo is also happy to be able to accept IRA Charitable Rollover contributions to the Annual Campaign. Please contact Tina Stieben at 419-724-0371, Wendy Goldstein 419-724-0360 or Arleen R. Levine if you are making provisions with your financial advisor to donate with an IRA Charitable Rollover check; this way we can ensure that the check is processed timely and that you receive the appropriate tax letter. For further information on the eligibility to contribute using your IRA Charitable Rollover, please consult your financial advisor.

Personal Credit Card & Check Payment Deadlines

Credit card payment information must be received at Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo by 12 Noon Friday, December 27, 2019 for 2019 tax purposes. As stated above, payments by check need only be postmarked December 31, 2019 for 2019 tax purposes, or you can make payments online at www.JewishToledo.org by midnight on December 31, 2019. Please note that our offices will be closed Wednesday, December 25, 2019 in observance of Christmas holiday. Please call the accounting department before 12:00 pm at 419-724-0366 to process a credit card payment over the phone.

Bereavement group for spousal loss

Tuesday, November 12

4 – 6 p.m.

Sekach Building

Plan to grab a bite after (restaurant location to be determined)

One of the most important factors in healing from grief is the support of other people. Having support from your family, friends, or a community of others who have also experienced grief allows you to feel that someone else “gets it.” Being able to share your story or your feelings is vital to the healing process.

We are trying to pay attention to this important stuff at JFS. We understand that there’s not a lot of support in the Toledo area, where our faith and values are very similar. We also understand that it might feel intimidating to join a bereavement group. You can always attend our support group and just listen. You won’t be asked to speak until you’re comfortable and you might feel better just being surrounded by a community (your community) with some understanding of the depth of your grief. So, come join us. Help us build this support.

Active Life for 60 and Better

Active Learners Day

On September 12, the Jewish Living Center hosted Active Learners Day featuring various local speakers. Topics ranged from mature driving and getting organized while downsizing, to an author talking about aging and trying new adventures. “The day was such a success, I’m already developing ideas for next year,” says Stephanie Hinamon, JLC program associate.

Toledo-Lucas County Public Library technology program

The Jewish Living Center partnered with the Toledo-Lucas County Public Library to host a technology program featuring the library's new Tech Team. The Tech Team talked about the various features offered online and how to access them. They were then available to help participants with their technology questions on their phones and tablets.

Out and About

Israel Legacy Trip

Wednesday, April 22 — Wednesday, May 6

To receive an itinerary, call Rene or Stephanie at 419-531-2119

The Jewish Living Center of Greater Toledo is pleased to present the Israel Legacy Trip for those 60 and better. Your trip begins the morning of April 22 with a luxury motor coach ride to Toronto, Canada, to depart on Air Canada in the afternoon. We will arrive in Israel on April 23.

Have your cameras at the ready as we will be visiting Tel Aviv, Western and Upper Galilee, and Jerusalem. Tours will include exploring Levinsky Market, Masada, the Dead Sea, street graffiti, and museums. We'll also have a day exploring with our Partnership Region. We will travel by plane, bus, cable car, and camel.

This will be a journey of sights, sounds, tastes, and emotions. We will be traveling during Yom HaZikaron and Yom Ha'atzmaut to experience these holidays. This tour requires travelers to be physically fit. If you have any questions on the physicality of this trip, please call us.

Amiel Tours, founded in 1976 by Chuzi Amiel, is a family-owned Israel tour company. A nine-time recipient of the Distinguished Promoter of Tourism Award, Amiel is one of the largest and most respected providers of travel services in Israel today. Each year, the Amiel team helps over 100,000 visitors experience Israel. The tour guides are knowledgeable professionals and licensed by the Ministry of Tourism.

4.5

This trip is a 4.5: Very active tour requires guests to be physically fit. Includes longer walking tours, climbing stairs, and periods of standing. Tour days may be longer, with select activities in the evening.

*A collaborative program by Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo,
Jewish Community Relations Council, Gan Yeladim Preschool,
Congregation B'nai Israel, Congregation Etz Chayim,
Temple Shomer Emunim, and Anti-Defamation League*

Alana Bandos organizes anti-bias education as the education director for the Anti-Defamation League – Cleveland office, which serves Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania. Her role includes collaborating with principals, school administrators, and faculty at K-12 schools and college campuses to design custom anti-bias and bullying prevention workshops for staff and students. Bandos also responds to complaints of anti-Semitism and general bias incidents in schools. She will speak to parents and community members about current trends in anti-Semitism and what their children may encounter in school and beyond. Bandos will also address some basic tools and strategies available to parents to respond to anti-Semitic comments and incidences.

Prior to ADL, Bandos served as student life coordinator Kent State University Hillel, where she developed social and religious programs for hundreds of Jewish college students. She attended University of Wisconsin – Madison and has a graduate-level certificate in experiential Jewish education. In her spare time, Bandos volunteers with local nonprofits, coordinating fundraising events for Girls on the Run and the Wisconsin Alumni Association – Northeast Ohio Chapter.

Fiddler on the Roof comes to Stranahan Theatre

The Tony Award-nominated Broadway revival of Fiddler on the Roof is coming to the Stranahan Theater October 17-20. A beloved theatrical classic, Fiddler on the Roof is directed by Tony Award-winner Bartlett Sher (South Pacific, The King and I), choreographed by acclaimed Israeli choreographer Hofesh Shechter (inspired by the original choreography of Jerome Robbins), and has musical direction by Ted Sperling. Fiddler on the Roof is the heartwarming story of fathers and daughters, husbands and wives, life, love, and laughter. This classic musical is rich with Broadway hits including "To Life (L'Chaim!)," "If I Were A Rich Man," "Sunrise, Sunset," "Matchmaker, Matchmaker," and "Tradition." Tickets are on sale now at the Stranahan Theater box office at 4645 Heatherdowns Blvd., online at Broadway-InToledo.com, or by calling 419-381-8851.

Jewish community to mark 80 years since Kristallnacht

Submitted by Chabad House of Greater Toledo

On November 3, Toledo's Jewish community will gather at Chabad House of Greater Toledo to mark 80 years since the horrors of Kristallnacht with a guest lecture. At 10 a.m., Rabbi Yitzchak Mendel Wagner, the first German-born rabbi since the Holocaust, will address the community via dynamic video conferencing. Kristallnacht, or the "Night of Broken Glass," refers to the night of November 9, 1938, when German Nazis attacked Jews and rounded up tens of thousands to be sent to concentration camps. On this night in approximately 200 towns across Germany, Austria, and the Sudetenland region of Czechoslovakia, Nazis torched synagogues and vandalized Jewish homes, schools, and businesses. They murdered hundreds of Jews and dragged thousands from their homes, coldly dividing families as many looked on, unperturbed.

The United States Holocaust Memorial and Museum website states "Kristallnacht was a turning point in the history of the Third Reich, marking the shift from antisemitic rhetoric and legislation to the violent, aggressive anti-Jewish measures that would culminate with the Holocaust." One of Germany's youngest community rabbis, Rabbi Wagner is also the first rabbi in his hometown of Krefeld in more than 70 years. Krefeld's synagogue was torched on Kristallnacht as firefighters turned a blind eye and Torah scrolls were rolled out into the street and stomped on by anti-Semites. Most of the Jewish community was eventually sent to the Theresienstadt concentration camp, never to be heard from again.

Rabbi Wagner brings an insider's perspective, along with his own personal experience, as he tells the story of German Jewry's tragic demise and unexpected rebirth, rising from the ashes of the Holocaust to its current grandeur. He will address the struggles against anti-Semitism, new challenges, and moral dilemmas facing today's German-Jewish community.

"This is an exciting opportunity to hear firsthand what it's like to be a rabbi in post-Holocaust Germany," said Rabbi Yossi Shemtov, director of Chabad. "Eighty years after Kristallnacht, Jews are again walking the streets where unspeakable atrocities once took place. This event is an opportunity to ask some tough questions and hear insightful answers from a Jewish community leader in modern-day Germany."

The lecture fee is $12 with a 40 percent discount for all five Chabad guest lectures. Bagels, lox, and cream cheese will be served. For more information and to RSVP, visit www.chabadtoledo.com/guestlecture.

Fund opened to honor Jeff Sherman, z"l, with kitchen naming Friends and family of Jeff Sherman, z"l, are raising money to name the Congregation B'nai Israel kitchen in his honor. The group kicked off their campaign this summer with an event to remember Sherman and celebrate his life. Known by many as "Deli Boy," his personality shined through his exceptional culinary skills, which were often displayed in the Congregation B'nai Israel kitchen. Sherman passed away in November.

Born in Utica, New York, to Bill and Helene Sherman of blessed memory, he and his family moved to Toledo in 1964. He graduated from Sylvania Southview High School in 1980 and studied communications at Specs Howard School of Media Arts. As a young adult, Sherman developed a passion for cooking and catering. He owned and operated Deli Delight at Franklin Park Mall and Spring Meadows Shopping Center. Sherman gave his culinary creations special names, primarily those of his family and close friends. After he closed his delis, Sherman worked for Lipari Foods for 23 years. He also operated Simply Delicious catering, providing countless meals for life events and business functions.

Sherman was a devoted and loving husband to Alison Sherman, father to Sarah, Joshua, and Jamie Sherman, and grandfather to Odin. He relished time with family and friends and loved to FaceTime with his beloved grandson. His granddaughter, Jade, was born after he passed away.

Donations to the fund set up by Sherman's friends and family to name the Congregation B'nai Israel kitchen in his honor can be sent directly to Congregation B'nai Israel with a note indicating it's intended for the fund. Checks may be made out to Congregation B'nai Israel.

B'nai Mitzvah We Honor Our B'nai Mitzvah

Jack Bauer will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, October 19th, at Temple Shomer Emunim. Jack is the son of Alyssa and Jeremy Bauer, and the younger brother of Charlotte. He is the grandson of Sheryl and Jeff Levin, and Anne and Jeff Bauer.

Jack is a student at Timberstone Junior High. Most days he can be found at Sunrise Gymnastics Academy practicing with the Sunrise Boys' Team, but he also finds time for playing piano and trumpet, golfing, riding dirt bikes, stocking the JFS Food Pantry, and hanging out with friends.

Jack has incorporated his love of woodworking into his mitzvah project. He is building a Free Mini Library which will be placed in front of Stranahan Elementary School. If you would like to donate gently used children's books for Jack's mitzvah project, please put them in the collection box outside the Temple office.

Penina Rubin, daughter of Rabbi Evan and Mrs. Kerry Rubin, will become a Bat Mitzvah on October 26, 2019, at Congregation Etz Chayim. Penina is a student at Monac Elementary School, The Nigri Jewish Online School, and the David S. Stone Religious School.

In addition to her parents and loving sisters, Rochael and Chana, Penina is greatly looking forward to sharing her simcha with family and friends from near and far. Her grandmothers, Mrs. Barbara Rubin of Toledo, and Mrs. Rollie Solomon of Marietta, Georgia, as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins will be joining Penina for this wonderful occasion.

We wish Penina the very best as she ascends "Machayil El Chayil" - from strength to strength. May she always be a blessing to her family and the people of Israel.

A message from the Toledo BBYO city director

Hello Toledo,

It is with some sadness that I announce that my time as city director of Toledo BBYO has come to an end. As my workload in the astrophysics PhD program at the University of Toledo increases, I am left without enough time to devote to the truly incredible program we have in our community. My time with BBYO in Toledo has been more valuable than can be expressed in words.

The young adults of this community are extremely proud of their Jewish heritage and they are strongly motivated to seek Jewish connections and make a difference right here in Toledo. In my time as city director, I have been privileged to see many young Jewish leaders taking the initiative to create meaningful experiences for their peers and developing valuable networking and leadership skills. I wish I could continue in this position forever, but I am confident that when I have gone, Toledo BBYO will continue to grow and provide an outlet for Jewish teens to create friendships that can last a lifetime.

I will be staying on as an advisor for BSN (and B'not Shalom!), so I will always be just a phone call, text, or email away for anyone who has questions about BBYO. I want to thank everyone in this amazing community for all the support and enthusiasm that you have shared with me and our teens over these past two years. I look forward to seeing what future heights the young leaders of Jewish Toledo will reach.

Cheers,
Sam Federman,
Lifelong BSN BBYO alum

The EMOJI program

The EMOJI program was developed in the summer of 2017 to help develop Jewish identity for our children, one camper at a time. This is accomplished by making camp affordable, accessible, and meaningful to families in our community by offering scholarships through the EMOJI program.

In the summer of 2019, 28 campers attended Jewish summer overnight because of the EMOJI program. The Toledo Jewish Community Foundation invested over $60,000 in ensuring future generations' connections to their Judaism, our Toledo Jewish community, Israel, and beyond.

Check out some of Jewish Toledo campers' summer experiences and save the date for the 2019 summer camp fair on Sunday, Nov. 3, at 9:30 a.m. at Temple Shomer Emunim. Come meet some camp representatives and learn more about what your child's Jewish future can look like.

Congregation Etz Chayim

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Mark your calendars for the Sukkot luncheon on Saturday, October 19.

The annual Etz Chayim/B’nai Israel Rummage Sale is approaching quickly. The set-up at Etz Chayim will take place Thursday, October 31, Tuesday, November 5, and Wednesday, November 6. People may drop off their rummage on Sunday, November 3 and Monday, November 4 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The Rummage Sale will take place on Sunday, November 10 and Bag Day is Monday November 11. Clean-up Day will be Tuesday, November 12. We are looking for both women and men to help unload boxes from cars, set up racks and tables, hang or fold clothing items, or work at the sale.

Please contact Marcia Grossman at (419) 536-0890 to volunteer.

The next Sisterhood Board meeting is Tuesday, October 29 in the Shul Library. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend.

ANNOUNCING: CONGREGATION ETZ CHAYIM SPEAKER’S BUREAU

We are delighted to announce our new Speaker’s Bureau.

Dr. Kenneth Pargament will be our first speaker on Sunday, October 27th at 10:00 a.m. in the synagogue library. Come and hear Ken speak on “Sacred Moments: What Makes Life Worth Living.” There will be time for discussion and questions to follow.

We have also scheduled Dr. Eric Dubow for November 17th, Peter Silverman on December 8th and 15th, and Gerry Bazer on April 26th. We are truly excited to bring these wonderful, talented speakers to our synagogue.

KNITZVAH PROJECT

Calling all knitters and crocheters!! The first Wednesday of each month, ladies gather to knit or crochet shawls for Breast Cancer patients. This is such a worthwhile project. The next session is Wednesday, October 2nd at 1:00 p.m.

MAH JONG/POKER

Each month the men and women enjoy playing mahj and poker on Sunday mornings. The two hours are relaxing playing cards or tile matching and socializing with friends. I would like to add one more game to our Sunday mornings. Come play Euchre. Please email me at Jaco824@bex.net if you would be interested in playing Euchre. The next date is Sunday, October 6th at 10:00 a.m

FAIR SHARE: THE ETHICS OF CHARITABLE GIVING
Presented by Rabbi Shemtov
Sunday, October 27 at 10 a.m.
or Tuesday, October 29 at 7 p.m.

This lesson addresses the mitzvah of tzedakah and ma'aser. It does not scrutinize governmental responsibility or the charitable obligations of communities and societies as a whole, but focuses inward and addresses many of the practical questions frequently asked by those who desire to use their money ethically. Unlike a Q&A series, this lesson will allow students to see the principles, reasoning, and the halachic process behind the many guidelines and explanations that will be studied.

This program is sponsored in honor of, and with many thanks to, Paul Goldner & Sandy Soifer
