

A New 2021-2022 Series

Jewish Life Through Art

A joint project of Congregation Anshei Israel, Future home of Kol Ami, and PJ Library in Southern Arizona

Sunday, August 22, 2021 at the Future Home of Kol Ami

Apples, Honey, and SAND, Oh My!

Join us as we learn about the holiday in story, song, food, and craft. Work with sand to create a beautiful and treasured apple and honey dish for Rosh Hashanah 5782 and beyond.

Sunday, October 17, 2021 at Location TBD

Who's Got the Grape Juice?

Join us to learn about our weekly holiday – Shabbat! Create your very own kiddush cup to use for all 52 Shabbats and for other holidays and celebrations, as well.

Sunday, November 21, 2021 at Location TBD

A Whole Lotta Latkes!

Join award-winning author, cartoonist, and screenwriter, Alan Silberberg, and meet his zany family – the Latkes. Get out paper and pencils and draw with Alan, over Zoom, as he shows us how he created the latke family in the PJ Library book Meet the Latkes.

Sunday, February 13, 2022 at Location TBD

Let There be LIGHT!

It's time to light up the night – Friday night, that is. Join us as we create our own candlesticks to light up Shabbat every week! Have fun learning the blessings, singing, rolling beeswax, making challah covers, and more.

Sunday, April 3, 2022 at Congregation Anshei Israel

Who's Got the Afikomen?

Did you know the origin of the word Afikomen is Greek? Join us to learn about the Afikomen and all things Passover! Decorate your personal Afikomen holder, learn the blessings, and a Passover song or two.

Sunday, May 22, 2022 at the Future Home of Kol Ami

Making Art Together – It's All About Imagination!

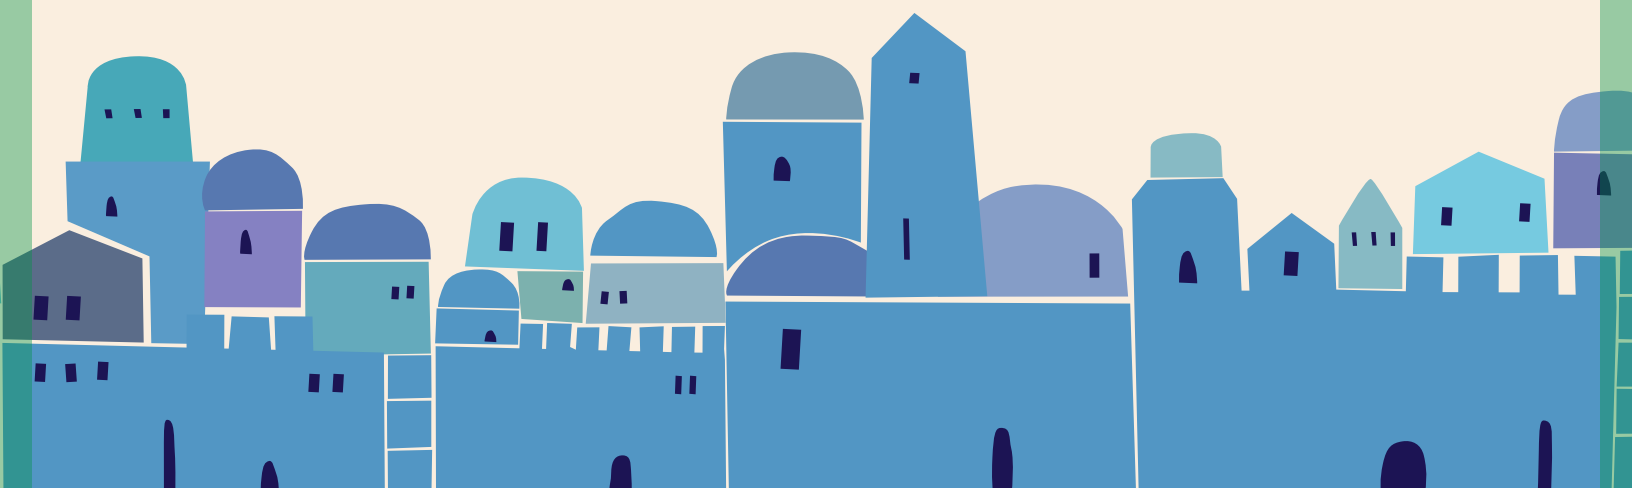

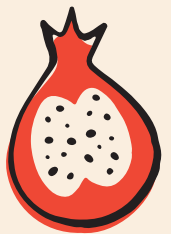

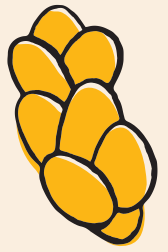

Imagine your wildest mouse house and come build one with us! Find inspiration from Mozi the Mitzvah Mouse, Matzah Belowstairs, Something from Nothing, and many other PJ books.

Events are geared toward children ages 2 through 8.

Adult assistance is needed for the younger ones.

Individual programs: $5/child
